Moral: Every young lady should keep a cat in her chignon.

THE recent terrific hail storm in Philadelphia frightened the horses in a funeral procession, and produced a panic among the mourners. A reconciliation has now been effected, and a family meeting took place on April 19th, when everything passed over with the greatest cordiality.

Spinner, United States Treasurer, that for some time he found an old stove a convenient safe for his bonds; but recently, without his knowledge, the stove was used, and to his astonishment the bonds were baked to a crisp. The Treasurer has notified him to forward with the greatest care the "baked bonds," and, if they can be identified, the government will either pay their value, or issue registered bonds in their place.

Baker, brakesman on freight train, and one Collins, section hand.

THE Zanesville Courier says: We understand that the English Catholic school connected with the St. Thomas Catholic church, has been abandoned. The reason therefor was, that the school was not self-sustaining. There are perhaps other reasons, which we have not ascertained. These children will now attend the public schools, and a large number of applications are daily being made for their admission. The Board of Education, in order to accommodate the views of parents in reference to the reading of the Bible in the schools, have adopted a rule permitting the Catholic children, who wish it, to retire from the schoolroom each morning during devotional exercise.

EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON has recently purchased the large brick block known in Greenville as the Mowery Block. It is generally believed in Greenville that he will soon establish a bank. He has the means, and has been frequently urged to do so for the convenience of the business men of that and adjoining towns. As it now, they have no bank nearer than Knoxville, and they find it now almost impossible to do longer withont one. The Ex-President spends most of his time in study. He writes a great deal, and it is generally supposed that he contemplates soon publishing a book which shall be a defence of "my policy" and his Administration. He has some visitors from a distance, and during the Court sessions his house is daily filled from early morning till night by his friends from the country, who think him the greatest man of the age.

IT WILL be remembered that the remains of the late Mr. Peabody were temporarily deposited in Westminster Abbey prior to their removal to his native town. Over his temporary grave there has been placed the following inscription on a flag stone three feet square:

THE Lamar Missourian of the 5th inst. states that on the preceding Sunday a man whose name was not learned, living near Doyl Port in Barton county, attempted to kill his wife and then end the tragedy by shooting himself. The author of the horrid crime was a man 74 years of age, and had just returned from the north part of the State, where he had collected about twenty-eight hundred dollars. He accused his wife of communicating the fact of his having money to the neighbors and after sending his grand-daughter and daughter from the house, he seized a revolver and fired at his wife, but missed his aim; she ran to escape his vengeance, whereupon he took a musket loaded with buckshot and fired at her again as she ran, the shot grazing her hip, and she fell as if shot dead. The old man then took the money and all of his deeds and papers and burned them. Then he loaded his musket, and placing it to his head, demanded his little son, five years old, to shoot the gun. The boy refused. He then took a piece of chair round, whittled it flat, so that it would pass in front of the trigger, placed the muzzle of the gun to his head and fired, literally tearing the top part of his head away,

OIL ITEMS.

The Northwestern Independent prints the following:

The Risk well on the Bailey farm was torpedoed during the early part of the present week, and immediately after being tubed commenced pumping oil at the rate of thirty-five or forty barrels per day.

The Berg well on the Faren farm is now being sunk deeper.

The Youghiogheny well, in Lawrenceburg, owned by Mr. Kuhn and others, is being drilled deeper. This well first commenced pumping at a depth of one thousand and eight feet, and produced for a time some ten or twelve barrels per day. After it is sunk a depth of one thousand and forty feet it will doubtless prove a good well.

The "Little Annie" oil well, on Independent lots, reached the top of the third sand on Saturday morning, May 7th.

The big well recently struck near Brady's Bend we understand is now flowing about forty barrels per day.

The well south of the log-house, on Washington street, Lawrenceburg, was nearly through the third sand some days ago, but unfortunately the tools became fast, and the workmen have thus far been unable to extricate them. They are at work, however, with a zeal worthy of success, and we hope they will succeed.

NEW OIL STRIKES.

The Mellen well on the Clarion river, about one-fourth mile from the terminus of said stream, has been sunk a depth of 821 feet, through a third sand said to be thirty-eight feet thick; it commenced to pump on the 27th of April, starting at about 10 barrels per day and promising to improve. This well is owned by Wm. Gates, John Painter, Mr. Lee, of Kittanning, Mr. Crawford, of Allegheny county, and others.

The Rotary Oil Well, on land of Mrs. Judge Bredin, in Lawrenceburg, on the North side of Washington street, has been sunk a depth of 1015 feet, through a third sand, about thirty feet thick, and commenced to pump oil on Thursday last, making a fine start and promising to prove a good well. This well is owned by Peter Hutchison, James Reese, John Barton, Ed. Barton, of Allegheny county, and James McCullough, of Freeport, Armstrong county, Pa.

The Montgomery well, on land of Leonard and Parker, on the Southern bank of Mike run, has been drilled to a depth of 1045 feet, through the third sand, said to be twenty-eight feet thick, and is now being tubed with favorable indications. This well is owned by John Montgomery, James Montgomery, G. W. Johnson, of Pittsburgh; G. W. Livingston, Wm. Bennett, of Emlenton, and others.

The Belleview well No. 2, on Parker farm, one mile west of Lawrenceburg, is down and has been tubed for some days. The last report we have had from it is, that the water has not yet been properly shut off, and consequently it had not pumped any considerable quantity of oil. This well is owned by Messrs. Wineman, Hutchison and other parties living in the neighborhood of Tarentum, Allegheny county, Pa.

The Keystone well, on the Faren farm, on hill, about sixty rods west of the river, and north of Bear creek, has been drilled a depth of 1,063 feet, through the third sand, said to be thirty feet thick, and has been pumping for a few days, throwing out a large amount of oil, promising to be a good well. This well is owned by Geo. Shidel, of Lawrenceburg, Captain Allen Wilson, John Keister, W. G. Stoughton, John Shull, Williamson Christy, of Butler county, and others.

The Hoover well No. 2, on land of Jas. W. Parker, on hill, north of Bear creek, has been drilled a depth of 1,050 feet, through the third sand, said to be thirty feet thick; has been pumping for some ten days and is now yielding about four barrels of oil per day. This well is owned by Noah Henry, Dr. S. Bredin, J. C. Redick, Dr. Hoover, of Butler county, and others.

UNIONTOWN, PA.

UNIONTOWN, PA, May 10, 1870.

EDITORS GAZETTE: Pursuant to call the Republican County Convention met in the Court House yesterday at one o'clock P. M., and was called to order by G. W. K. Miner, Esq., Chairman of the County Central Committee. Capt. S. B. Page, of Brownsville, was chosen presiding officer. All preliminaries over the Convention proceeded to nominate candidates.

For Congress, G. W. K. Miner, Esq., was nominated by acclamation. Eli Cope, Esq., ex-sheriff of this county, was unanimously nominated for Assembly. James Curry for County Commissioner, Major A. Guiler for Jury Commissioner, John A. Murphy for Poor House Director, and John Kehl for County Auditor. With this ticket of true Republicans we expect to give the Democrats a hard fight next fall. Should Mr. Miner receive the nomination for this district, and we have no doubt he will, we are confident of his election by an immense majority, such as this district never gave before, not even for the "old Alligator." Mr. Miner is a self-made man, and has baen earnest and true in his devotion to the Republican party, and they could not better reward him than by sending him to Congress to represent this district. J. B. Miller, Uriah Higenbotham and Wm. Parshall were appointed Congressional conferees for this county.

The negroes voted at the primary election on Saturday, and showed by their orderly deportment that they were fully qualified for the exercise of the elective franchise.

RHAP.

IT WAS CLEARLY MADE manifest by the able and skillful manner in which the Doctor described various diseases of the eye and its optical defects, the various remedies and optical treatment. (We are speaking of Dr. Franks' very interesting lecture on Monday evening, May 9th, in Allegheny city) he fully convinced those present that he is a gentleman of high ability as an oculist, aurist and optician. In treating the subject, the learned gentleman remarked upon the importance of paying immediate attention to all sensations and inconveniences of a character to lead us to suspect that the organ of vision is, to any extent, deranged, and here we cheerfully endorse the lecturer's views, viz: "that there is much loss of sight from inattention to early symptoms of weakness, and permanent loss of vision in consequence of having the eyes tampered with, especially in diseases, which may be cured by an early application of medical treatment. Doctor Franks is well known as a skillful physician and surgeon, being a regular graduate of the Philadelphia school of medicine, and a member of the State medical society of Pennsylvania. His specialty being diseases of the eye, ear, and the application of his patent spectacles to all defects of sight. We urge our readers not to delay, to consult this gentleman at once (consultation free and charges very moderate) at St. Clair hotel. Ladies entrance, room 22. See advertisement in another column.

MESSRS. EDITORS: "Central Board" vainly attempts to crawl out of the bad box in which placed by Father Hickey, by urging that only the colored schools were closed on the day of jubilee. Very well. Are not the colored schools a part and parcel of the common schools? Was there no Redeemer who died for other than white people? Should black children be permitted to enjoy a political occasion and refused opportunity to observe "Good Friday?" The color screen won't do, Mr. Central Board. You cannot justify your action in ignoring Good Friday and, in the same breath, recognizing the 26th of April, by any harmless flings at your accuser. Father Hickey, however, did not say that all the schools were closed. He read clearly from the GAZETTE that the colored schools were afforded a holiday, and he qualified with this adjective the word school when used in the connection. No defense is necessary.

CATHOLIC.

Solved.

The enigma found in the fast growing popularity of the Weed Sewing Machine by parties unacquainted with its merits is easy of solution. Its simplicity, durability and adaption to all kinds of work renders it the most desirable investment for all in want of this kind of machinery. Call at 116 Market street and give it a trial.

NEW YORK CITY.

The McFarland Trial—The Agony Over—Verdict of Acquittal—Woman's Suffrage Association.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 10, 1870.

M'FARLAND TRIAL—TWENTY-SIXTH DAY.

A little after eleven o'clock the court opened and District Attorney Garvin arose and commenced his closing speech. Commenting first on the extraordinary length of time taken by the trial, he declared it the duty of the jury and himself to devote even three times as much time if necessary to give the prisoner a fair trial. Passing on to the case he said that no man had a right to take the law into his own hands. Perhaps Richardson and Mrs. McFarland were innocent. Richardson was a brave man, who had devoted himself to the service of his country during the late war. Was he a likely man to dishonorably seduce a man's wife? Moreover, it was unlikely that Richardson would marry his mistress. Men never do, except under compulsion. McFarland had given up his wife for two years, a divorce was had, and on his deathbed Richardson married Mrs. McFarland as a pure woman. The defense acknowledged the commission of the deed, but say it was the deed of an insane man. In the same breath they say that he was justified in slaying the adulterer. This is not logical. They must take either stand. They cannot pretend to justify the deed of an insane man. The prosecution takes it for granted that the prisoner is sane. Such is the law, as they will be informed by the Court. Without entering into the question of the nature and signs of insanity, any juror, any sensible man can decide when a man is mad.

Mr. Garvin contended the defence proved nothing more than intense excitement, caused by prisoner's troubles and uncontrollable impulse. This was merely the passion of anger and could never excuse or palliate a crime. He denied that the cases of Sickles and Cole were parallel ones, for their acts were done suddenly, under excitement, while even they should have been convicted of some degree of murder.

The District Attorney then reviewed the testimony, showing that on the day of the shooting McFarland showed intimate knowledge of Richardson's habits, and lay in wait for him, showing premeditation and design. He leaned forward when Richardson entered, and fired, and made his escape. In this are exhibited memory, judgment and perception of danger. The defence had tried every question, except murder, and had worked to blacken the characters of Mrs. Calhoun, Mrs. Sinclair and Mr. Greeley, an attempt as absurd as unsustained by the evidence.

Mr. Garvin expressed the conviction that the jurors believed in McFarland's guilt, but there might be doubts as to the degree. If guilty of murder, let him be hanged; if of manslaughter, let him go to the State prison. The law must be vindicated in the case or there would be no security for life. He felt sure they would decide according to the evidence under their oaths.

The Recorder then addressed the jury. The accused was not to be convicted nor acquitted upon the speeches of counsel, or convicted upon prejudice toward the dead or living, or because public policy may demand an example. They must concientiously reject every fact or circumstance in the evidence which in their estimation cannot illustrate the question of sanity or insanity, or of malice, or which does not bear upon the time, place, mode and act of killing. The state of domestic relations it was not material for them to adjudicate. The question was, how did the prisonor believe about them, and how did that belief impress his mind, sanely or insanely?

The Recorder then proceeded to charge substantially every proposition of the counsel for the defense upon the subject of insanity, and continued: If you believe that the accused armed himself with a loaded pistol, and sought out the deceased and shot him, upon grudge and malice, intending to kill, he is guilty of murder in the first degree. If, having a loaded pistol, he shot the deceased without intent or design to take life, and in heat of passion, then it may be either manslaughter in the third or fourth degree.

The Recorder then charged upon the point asked by the defense, as to the first shooting, viz: That it cannot be taken as evidence of malice. Unless the prosecution satisfied them the shooting was felonious, and not in a state of insanity, the jurors were to discard it from their consideration altogether.

He declined to charge that the non-prosecution of defendant therefor is strong evidence that the act was not deemed a crime at the time of commission. The upholding or prostration of the marriage relation should have nothing to do with their verdict. Fourierism, free love, or sentimentalism, on one hand, and moral reflections upon the conduct of the deceased man or living woman, upon the other hand, are not legitimately to effect the verdict. The inflexible rule of jurors should be that the aggrieved husband, or father, or relative who takes the correction of wrongs into his own hands, with pistol or knife, and is not insane when he did the correction, is not to be acquitted because it is the duty of every man to uphold the sanctity of the marriage tie, unassisted by legal procedure. If the prisoner took the law into his own hands, in a state of sanity, and with malice, he is guilty of felonious killing; if in a state of insanity, he is not guilty.

At three o'clock the jury retired. They reappeared in court at ten minutes to five. The silence of death prevailed as they took their seats and McFarland turned pale as a sheet. The Foreman finally rose to answer the usual question, and McFarland stood up to face the jury. He trembled violently and clutched the railing beside him, as if for support. "Is the prisoner at the bar guilty, or not guilty?" came the question at last. "Not guilty" was the answer.

The scene beggars description. The whole audience jumped to their feet and cheered as though determined to shake the house to the foundation. Even the Court officers joined in cheering. Men and women sprang over seats and struggled for the privilege of shaking McFarland by the hand. The ladies divided their attention between the liberated man and his counsel, whom they lavished with thanks. McFarland was very much affected, and little Percy in his joy jumped upon a chair and waving a handkerchief lent his voice to the cheering. McFarland soon after left the court room and the crowd dispersed.

NATIONAL WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION.

The National Woman's Suffrage Association met to-day. About two hundred persons were present. Mrs. Stanton, in remarks, thought it would be a grave step in progress when women would be tried by a jury of their own sex. She alluded to the indecent questions put to women in the McFarland trial as disgraceful and considered it time to clear out out the courts of law and install educated, refined women in their place. She forgave Mr. Greeley his flunkeyism in consideration of the fine words he had given expression to in connection with the McFarland case. Miss Pheobe Cozzens, of St. Louis, and others spoke.

CONFESSION.

John Nixon, who was convicted at Patterson, New Jersey, of the murder of David Sisco, and sentenced to prison for twenty years, has made a confession. He acknowledges that he had a fight which resulted in Sisco's death, and charges his own father and sister, who testified strongly against him, with incest, for which he says he had threatened to have them arrested. Little confidence is placed in the statement of the prisoner, who shows signs of a weakness of the mind.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Eleven cases of small pox were reported on Saturday.

A train on the Hudson River road ran off the track at Manhattanville to-day. Nobody injured.

The reported irregularities in the affairs of Assessor Scanlon are unfounded.

The Hoboken firemen had a riot last night. Pistols were freely used, but no damage done.

Mr. Roesing, North-German Consul General, authorizes the denial of the statement published in the London Times that the warning to the German capitalists against American railroads emanated from the North-German Consul at New York. He has written nothing on the subject.

BOSTON.

Excursion Extraordinary to the Pacific.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BOSTON, May 10.—A number of Boston men will start on the 23d of May on an excursion to San Francisco. An equal number of ladies will accompany them. Capital to the amount of $50,000,000 will be represented, and all the arrangements are to be on the most elaborate scale. Nine cars, fitted up with restaurant, sofas, beds, billiard tables, &c., have been built expressly for this occasion. The Governor of Massachusetts, the Mayors of Boston and surrounding towns, and many other prominent men will be among the excursionists. It has been arranged that the Governors of the States through which they pass are to meet them on the confines of their States and escort them through the same. One of the principal features will be the publication of a newspaper every day, which will be a complete resume of the incidents of the route, together with descriptions of the country and notable persons whom they meet. The affair is in charge of Charles W. Brooks, Chinese Consul at San Francisco.

The minority report against the State aid, to the Hartford & Erie Road, presented to-day, takes the ground that it is better for the Road to go into bankruptcy now, than to expend more millions and then fail.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

COLUMBUS, May 10.—The meeting of the Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F. and the dedication of the new Temple of that order, to-day, drew a great crowd of strangers to the city. The streets and buildings were profusely decorated with flags. A procession two miles long, with eight bands of music, formed at two o'clock and paraded the streets. The exercises took place at the Opera House at four o'clock. Governor Hays presided and the oration was delivered by Rev. D. H. Moore. At the close the crowd went to the new Hall, which was dedicated according to the ritual by Grand Master Turner. The Grand Lodge met at ten A. M., but adjourned without transacting much business.

FRANCE.

PARIS, May 10, 1 P. M.—Several riots occurred late last night, they were not serious. Three or four barricades were erected in the Belleville district, but being feebly defended the troops carried them easily, without firing a shot. Shots were fired but not by the soldiers. There was great excitement throughout the night, and indeed is now, but owing to the large display of troops, the crowd is more noisy than dangerous.

La Liberte says the Emperor intends to abrogate the decree banishing members of the Bourbon and Orleans families. The same journal asks for the complete freedom of the press as the result of the adoption of the plebiscitum, and proves that after years of experience, all efforts against the opposition press are powerless.

8 P. M.—It is feared the disturbances of last night will be renewed this evening, but ample measures have been taken by the Government to maintain order. Great crowds of people are gathered in the Faubourg Du Temple.

10 P. M.—Barricades have again been thrown up in Foubourg Du Temple and also in Belleville, and troops are now operating against them. It is reported that Captain Lafontaine, in command of one of the attacking columns, was wounded by a pistol shot.

PARIS, May 11—3 A. M.—All the barricades were taken by the troops at midnight, and by one o'clock this morning the Faubourg Du Temple and Belleville were occupied by the military. Tranquility now prevails through the city.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, May 10.—There is a growing discontent at the income tax in Bombay, and several indignation meetings have been held.

The House of Lords passed the bill making changes in the war office and adjourned.

In the House of Commons Mr. Lefevre explained the proposed reduction of light house dues, which is chiefly in favor of coastwise shipping. Mr. Childers, First Lord of Admiralty, said thirteen hundred emigrants were booked for passage to Canada in troop ships.

Mr. Dawson moved to resolve that the House condemns the raising of a large portion of the India revenue from opium. Mr. Fowler seconded the motion. Mr. Winfield opposed the resolve, arguing that opium was less harmful than alcohol. Mr. Henly closed the debate with remarks in favor of the resolve. The House divided, and the resolve was lost by a majority of 104.

Mr. Gladstone moved the following gentlemen be appointed a select Committee to inquire by what tenure convents and monastries, including Anglican institutions, hold property in England: Messrs. Villiers, Newdegate, Gressel, Thomas, Chambers, Matthews, Howes, Pemberton, O'Conner, Don and seven others. The motion was agreed to.

The under Secretary of Foreign Affairs, Mr. Otway, informed the House of Commons to-night that orders had been sent to Athens which would insure the thorough investigation of the Marathon massacre.

QUEENSTOWN, May 10.—Phillips, the alleged defaulter, has been discharged from custody and the gold found in his possesion at the time of his arrest has been restored to him.

SPAIN.

MADRID, May 10.—Senor Olozaga returns immediately to Paris. There is much speculation as to the reasons of the Government for summoning him to Madrid, and the mystification is not lessened by the fact that the Ministers to Italy, Austra and Portugal are also expected to arrive here. Rumor has it that these conferences bear on the question of a candidate for the throne. The chances of the elevation of Espartero are improving, especially since the proposition has been coupled with the suggestion that Gen. Prim be declared his successor on the throne.

The Spanish press comments unfavorably on the French plebiscitum.

ITALY.

FLORENCE, May 10.—The insurrection that lately broke out at Filadelfia, in Southern Italy, was confined to that immediate vicinity, and was by no means formidable. The latest advices announce the dispersion of the insurgents.

XLIST CONGRESS,

(SECOND SESSION.)

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 10, 1870.

SENATE.

The Vice President submitted a memorial from the G. A. R., asking authority to be given to send soldiers' pensions through the mail by the money order system.

Mr. WILLIAMS, from the Committee on Finance, reported a bill for refunding certain duties imposed upon the importation of Russia hemp, upon which forty dollars per ton had been charged in violation of the treaty with Russia, only twenty-five being charged on Manilla hemp.

Mr. SHERMAN then reported a bill making the duty the same as on Manilla hemp.

On motion of Mr. MORRILL, of Maine, the Secretary of the Interior was asked for information relative to any unauthorized invasion of the Indian terrritory by citizens.

Bills were introduced as follows:

By Mr. HOWELL: Regulating pensions of disabled officers and soldiers.

By. Mr. ROSS: To enable the Leavenworth, Lawrence and Galveston Railroad Company to relocate a portion of their road.

Mr. WILSON called up the army bill already reported by him and explained its provisions.

After general discussion it was without action laid aside and the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill proceeded with.

The section prohibiting the diversion of any surplus of the specific appropriation remaining unexpended was discussed until 4:30, when, after a short executive session, the Senate took a recess.

The amount for salaries and expenses of the collection of revenue were reduced from eight to seven millions.

Other amendments were adopted, including one that proprietors of bonded warehouses shall pay the current expenses and salaries of storekeepers; that for the reduction of the expenses of the Bureau of Education was passed over.

Mr. MORRELL, of Vermont, offered an amendment appropriating half a million dollars for the construction of a building for the State Department, to be used eventually as a wing of the building for State, War and Navy Departments, at a cost of five or six millions, which was discussed without action.

Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The Senate amendments to the Pension Appropriation bill were non-concurred in, and a Committee of Conference ordered.

Mr. LAWRENCE asked to introduce a bill allowing women to act as assistant marshals, but objection was made.

Mr. CONNER asked leave to introduce a bill to repeal that part of the act of April 12th, 1866, amending the act of March 3d, '65, to provide ways and means to support Government, as authorizes or may be construed to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to fund the public debt or exchange outstanding bonds and notes for other bonds and notes.

Mr. ALLISON and others objected.

Mr. Jas. H. Lewis, Representative of the Third District of Kentucky, vice Golladay, resigned, took the oath.

The Senate Northern Pacific Railroad bill was then taken up, and its supporters again refusing to allow time for discussion and amendment, filibustering commenced and continued all afternoon.

Without action, adjourned.

SECOND EDITION.

FOUR O'CLOCK.

THE CAPITAL.

San Domingo Treaty—Georgia Reconstruction—Nominations and Confirmations.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 10, 1870.

SAN DOMINGO TREATY.

L. Fabens, the agent of President Baez, to secure the ratification of the San Domingo treaty, had a second interview with Senator Sumner last night; also, one with the President. To the latter he delivered the final official documents from the Baez Government. The friends of the treaty seem to take confidence in the additional documents, but to what purport has not transpired. It does not appear, however, that there has been any material change in the views of the Senate upon the treaty, and an influential Senator remarked last night that the treaty would not be ratified by the Senate in executive session. If it should come up in the shape of a joint resolution to annex, as proposed by General Butler, it may barely receive a majority vote. The latter is expected to press his resolution to-day for the sixth time.

GEORGIA RECONSTRUCTION.

The Committee on Reconstruction this morning considered the Georgia bill. It was proposed to report to the House the bill as originally introduced in that body, which was similar to the bill admitting Virginia to representation, with an amendment providing for the employment of the militia instead of the regular forces, in case of necessity, for the preservation of peace and enforcement of the laws. The amendment is in lieu of the Senate substitute. Instead of fixing the time of election for members of the Legislature, as in that substitute and in the Bingham amendment, the question of the term of office is to be left to judicial decision. The Committee arrived at no definite conclusion. The consideration of the subject will be resumed on Thursday.

SUBMITTED.

The State Department has sent to the Senate the correspondence in reference to Davis Hatch, citizen of the United States, who was condemned to death in San Domingo on a charge of aiding the revolutionary party, but pardoned and compelled to leave the country.

CONFIRMED.

The Senate confirmed David C. Humphreys, of Alabama, as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, and Thomas H. Pearne, of Tennessee, Consul to Kingston, Jamaica.

NOMINATIONS.

The President has nominated Geo. A. Batchelor as Secretary of Dakota Territory; Lewis C. Backwell, Attorney of Colorado; Wm. H. West, of Ohio, Consul at Rio Janeiro.

WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE.

The Committee of Ways and Means is considering the Internal Revenue bill, which will soon be reported to the House. The Funding bill may be regarded as virtually dead.

THE PRIZE FIGHT.

Between Jem Mace and Allen in Louisiana—Mace the Victor, after Ten Rounds.

[By Telegraph to tne Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW ORLEANS, May 10.—The Mace-Allen prize fight excursion party left the city at five o'clock this morning on the Jackson railroad, occupying nine passenger cars and comprising about seven hundred persons, made up of prominent merchants, lawyers, physicians, ex-Union and Confederate officers, and "sporting men" from all parts of the country. A detail of Metropolitan police accompanied the train. Preparations were made for the fight in St. Charles Parish, three miles above Kennersville, and the ring pitched near the river, about a mile from the railroad. Both men were in fine condition, Allen weighing 173 and Mace 168 pounds. The betting was three to one on Mace, though the Allen men seemed confident.

At 8:50 the fight commenced. Mace made the first blow, hitting Allen under the right eye, and got away laughing. Mace hit Allen on the nose slightly and claimed the first blood, but not allowed. Quick interchanging and both men went down, Allen under.

Round two—Allen led off on Mace's forehead, Mace returning on Allen's mouth. First blood for Mace. Severe fighting ensued, Allen getting in two heavy blows near Mace's stomach. Mace fell short on Allen's neck, the latter returning on Mace's breast. Mace then got one under Allen's left eye, and then a severe cut in the right eye, Allen going down.

Round three—Allen struck Mace lightly, the latter going down.

Round four—Same as last.

Round five—Allen sent in a blow under Mace's right arm, the latter returning. Allen slipped down, but was quickly up again, and the men clinched, when Mace threw Allen.

Round six—Some little sparring when the men again clinched, Allen throwing Mace and falling on him heavily. Claims of foul, but not allowed.

Round seven—In this round Allen's right eye was completely closed, Mace getting in very heavily; Allen then gave Mace a body blow, and quick interchanges ensued, both men falling together.

Round eight—The men clinched, Mace getting in several blows, and was then thrown by Allen.

Round nine—A slight hit for Allen, who then struck Mace heavily below and under the left ear, knocking him clean down. First knock down for Allen.

Round ten—Allen gave Mace a body blow, then after feigning some time both rested several seconds; then coming up Allen hit Mace, the latter returning with two hard cuts under Allen's left eye, from which the blood flowed freely. The men again retired against the stakes, and going to their corners were sponged off. They advanced again, when some hard fighting ensued in Mace's favor, when the men clinched and fell heavily, Mace's arm being around Allen's neck. Allen was carried to his corner.

On time being called Coburn threw up the sponge, saying Allen's arm was dislocated. Mace was then declared the winner. The fight lasted forty-five minutes. Allen was badly punished about the face, but Mace is without a scratch. The crowd was very orderly.

Another fight is in progress between Turner, who fought King about two years ago, and Donnelly, a Galveston man.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.

Mace and Allen rode together in a cart to the battle ground, Mace inviting and assisting him to get into the cart. Some time was lost in selecting a favorable site. The ring was finally pitched about one hundred yards from the east bank of the Mississippi, about thirteen miles above New Orleans. Upon the completion of the ring, Rufus Hunt, a well known sporting man of New Orleans, was selected as referee, when John C. Heenan made a few remarks, during which he said that both combatants were Englishmen, and would fight on their merits, and he hoped there would be fair play for both, and that the best man would win.

At 8:35 A. M. Allen shied his cap into the ring, and soon followed it amidst great cheering. Mace was not long in following, and was likewise cheered, the betting being 100 to 70 in his favor, with the further advantage of his winning the choice of corners.

McCoole Challenges Mace.

ST. LOUIS, May 10.—Mike McCoole will publish a challenge to-morrow to fight Mace for $2,000 to $5,000 aside, six months after signing the articles, within fifty miles of New Orleans, or any where a fair fight can be had.

Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MEMPHIS, May 10.—The Methodist Episcopal General Conference South met this morning in the Second street Methodist church. The Conference was called to order by Bishop Daggett. Under the call of the Standing Committees, Dr. Hamilton, from the Committee on Revisions, recommended the adhesion to the present system of discipline. The Committee on the Interests of the Colored People recommended the adoption of the action of the last Conference for a separate church organization as provided in the discipline, which under the rule goes over, but will undoubtedly pass. Under the call of Conferences a large number of resolutions and petitions were received and referred, including one from Mobile urging the reenactment of the original prohibition in Code fifty-eight, prohibiting such amusements as theatres, circuses, dancing, etc., and one from St. Louis asking for the formation of a new Conference in Kansas; also, allowing Pacific Conference to sub-di-vide itself within the next four years; for changes in the discipline regarding infant baptism, and to relieve the present discipline from ambiquities. This led to a lengthy discussion. The other proceedings were unimportant.

☞ A CARD.—In View of the fact of my name having been, and being connected with a case of supposed abortion, I deem it a duty to the public, and the profession to which I belong, as well as a matter of justice to myself, to state that I am entirely innocent, and in every way clear of the imputations cast upon me, as I am and shall be abundantly able to show.

So far, no evidence whatever has been given that in any way criminates me, and my friends may rest assured none will.

The manner in which my name came to be connected with the affair is a mystery, and will doubtless be cleared when this case appears on trial before a competent Judge and Court. Respectfully,

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

OFFICIAL PAPER
Of Pittsburgh, Allegheny City and Allegheny County.

GAZETTE BUILDING:
Corner of Sixth Avenue and Smithfield Street.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 11, 1870.

WORKING-MEN, REMEMBER

The meeting at the old fair ground this evening! We want to see in it an old-fashioned crowd of the bone and sinew of the community. Every man who lives by industry, or who honors it as the main-spring of every well-ordered social fabric, and most of all here, should attend this meeting. Every citizen of Allegheny county has, if he knows it, the deepest concern in the direction of the national policy to the protection of the labor of our own people. It is one of the foremost rights of labor to assert its own dignity and influence, and we shall expect to see this done this evening.

BONDS in Frankfort, 95½.

PETROLEUM in Antwerp, 53¼.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 114¼.

THE contest in the House over the Pacific Railroad bill turned upon a proposition to require the Company to sell its lands to actual settlers at $2,50 per acre. The bill was the first business in order yesterday, and our dispatches should tell what has come of it.

AN Ebensburg correspondent of the Pittsburgh Commercial reports a schism in Cambria county on the Congressional nomination. A wrangle among Republicans is to the Commercial's taste. You will always find the buzzard where there is any carrion! Cambria is in the XVIIth district, now represented by D. J. MORRELL, who is a candidate for re-election. The other counties, Blair, Huntingdon and Mifflin, are yet to be heard from.

THE "White Men's Party" which our neighbor of the Post was so much in favor of two years ago, has not been heard of since, until recently it has come to the surface in Delaware. That is also among the Post's political friends. A circular from the Trustees of the State Normal School of Delaware estimates the number of white men and women in that State, who are not able to read or write their own names, at one-third of the entire population of the State. A very good place for a White Man's Party!

THE united Presbyterian Assemblies will meet at Phildelphia on the 19th. The attendance will be very large, representing 256 Presbyteries, and about 450,000 communing members. This is to be the joint meeting to which the separate sittings of last autumn in this city were adjourned. The report from the joint-committee on reconstruction, and the location of the Missionary Boards, will present the most important topics for discussion. We may justly remark that this first business meeting will be likely to subject the not wholly consummated reunion to its severest test. There are matters for debate and permanent adjustment which will constitute the experimenta crucis for the reunion. Let us hope that the results of the coming trial will redound to the highest interests of a practical religion which is exemplified by works as well as by faith!

SOME of our cotemporaries are exercised sorely over the rejection, by the Senate, of the Governor's nominee for Superintendent of the Soldiers' Orphan Schools. We have no doubt that the Governor intended to do his duty, while we are quite certain that a majority of the Senators did theirs. The nominee would have been confirmed, if he had been willing to acquiesce in the judgment of the Senate that his disbursements should be accounted for, in the form usual with all other officers, with the Auditor General. He apparently had his own private reasons for objecting to any supervision of the finances of his office—which the Senate found to be a very ample reason for squelching his nomination to the place. That is the whole of the story. Does any one deny its substantial truth? or the force of the Senatorial objection? We should like a square yes or no, from the rejected appointee himself, for which our columns are open to him.

THE REVENUE REFORM FIZZLE.

About the coolest thing of the season, is the refreshing paragraph which we quote from the Washington correspondence of the N. Y. Times as follows:

> The recent private meeting of several gentlemen in this city, and which is exciting some discussion, was not, I think, intended to inaugurate a new party movement, but merely to demonstrate the necessity of concession on the part of extreme protectionists. Certainly, Mr. David A. Wells cannot hope for support from the large majority of his Republican friends, if he is ready to co-operate in any attempt to break up the Republican party. The assaults of his opponents have been so bitter and unjustifiable that it is not strange that he should seek to retaliate, but he cannot expect to be sustained by those who have strengthened his hands most heretofore, if he shall lend his aid for the disruption of the party in any State.

—Oh, no! certainly no harm to the Republican party was intended! of course not! It was "merely to demonstrate the necessity of concession," that "several gentlemen," meeting in a mutual admiration party, resolved—in the more explicit language of that far better authority, the Free Trader, from which we quoted yesterday—to crush the policy of protection, or take action at once outside of the Republican party! It was to demonstrate the necessity for concession, was it, that journals like the Chicago Tribune and N. Y. Post, with which the Times is in hearty accord, cut themselves squarely free from Republicanism, and agreed to support free-trade candidates against our own tariff nominees?

It is clear then that these Tooley street conspirators have discovered that their famous petard, which was to blow up the Republican party, is only a huge mare's nest, a hollow and innocent pumpkin, which everybody laughs at. And so they sneak back, in the cheapest mortification, to their press-boards and cabbage. BUTLER's powder boat failure at Fort Fisher was a splendid success, compared with the results which this Washington "private meeting," flourished in with such a brazen blare of trumpets, and menacing the immediate extinction of the Republican party, has pitifully dwindled to. "Several gentlemen" are not going to reconstruct American politics, as much as they proposed. They find that they absurdly miscalculated their influence, and they are grieved, profoundly cut, by the hearty alacrity with which the party generally has welcomed their threat to withdraw.

—Decidedly, the room of these gentry is more acceptable than their company, to the great party of the Administration and the people. We beg them not to afflict us by proposing to come back again, or to insult us by attempting to deny their intention to desert. They are dangerous allies, but of not the least account when fairly kicked out of the party. Oh no! They never intended to do us harm! Because they couldn't, and have just found it out. One of them, the Chicago Tribune, might have realized this earlier, for it cannot have forgotten its great fizzle of last year, when it attacked President GRANT's administration with an equal flourish of trumpets, and retired in an equally ludicrous disorder.

GEORGIA ONCE MORE.

We print the full text of the Cessna bill, which is proposed as a substitute for the measure passed by the Senate three weeks since, for the adjustment of the Georgia question. Other propositions are also suggested to the House, but none of them has so general an approval as this bill has already elicited. Yet, we doubt if it can pass either body in its present shape. There is, as we have heretofore observed, but one objection to it, yet that objection ought to be fatal to the plan, or ensure its expurgation. It is a palpable mistake to propose to legalize an extra-constitutional term of the Georgia Legislature. More than this: it asserts, in the most offensive form, the real issue upon which a Republican Congress is now divided. Amended in this particular, so as to acquiesce in the election, in due course, of another Legislature this year, we think this bill of Mr. Cessna would go through the House with a rush, and that the Senate would accept it. For the strong vote on the Pomeroy plan, which the Senate adopted, is plain notice to the House that no prolongation of the present Legislature beyond the period for which it was chosen, can be agreed to in that body. It is this question upon which the long contest in the Senate, which so wearied the country, did really turn. Insisting upon such prolongation for two years, Mr. Cessna must exhibit an ignorance of, or an indifference to, the tenor of public sentiment, which would not correspond to our estimate of his practical and clear-sighted sagacity.

We have been told that many Republican members favor this bill. Well, it is, in every other particular, an excellent plan of settlement. But it cannot pass the Senate, without providing for an election this year. Why, then prolong the contest in Congress and before the people, most needlessly and mischievously irritating a wound, which would heal by the second intention if prudently treated, into a chronic and dangerous sore. Besides declaring the provisional nature of the State government, the Cessna bill provides for the new Legislative election which it too long defers, prescribes the qualifying oath to be taken by office holders, and imposes the same other fundamental conditions to which Virginia, Texas and Mississippi have agreed. The majority of members in both the Senate and House have thus three times recorded their support of a settled policy for the closing up of the work of reconstruction—and it is quite too much to ask that they should abandon their records, in favor of a plan which recognizes the State as Republican and legal, yet rejects and nullifies its Legislative article—which itself extends the Legislative term to twice the period fixed in the instrument, and yet imposes it as a fundamental condition upon the readmitted State, that her Legislature shall "never extend the term of any office beyond the regular period named in the Constitution!"

—This won't do, Mr. Cessna! It is altogether too bald! Make your bill consistent and logical, by omitting or amending this unfortunate feature, and, before the week is over, you would find yourself sustained by both Houses, by the President, by the South, and by the whole country.

PARTY NOMINATIONS.

The "Crawford county system" may be judged by its fruits. Look at Lowry for a Senator, or Billingfelt for another! Look at your Ames, Reinoehl, Godshalk, late Representatives. All these men were nominated on the "Crawford county" plan. What an eloquent testimony their records bear to its merits! No other system of party machinery can possibly be so bad as that which has entrusted such men as these with office. Whatever may be the just objections to the delegate system, it is in point of merit, as an honest and free expression of the popular will, as far above the Crawford county humbug as the sky is above the earth. Look at Lancaster county which, not long ago, was persuaded by fraudulent quacks of the Commercial stamp, to abandon the delegate convention and adopt this ballot-box-stuffing arrangement. The result has been there, just what it is everywhere else,—the triumph of the most scampish rings in the party. Why not? Their opportunities for cheating are increased ten-fold. They have, under this new device which the Lowry gang in Crawford first invented, every desired facility for stuffing the boxes, and doctoring the returns, without a shadow of any public responsibility. As the Bradford Reporter remarks:

> Our observation, and the unanimous testimony of those who have had experience in the workings of this system is adverse to it. On its face, the plan is popular and feasible. It professedly submits to a vote of the people, the selection of candidates. If the electors would attend the primary meetings and express their preferences, uncontrolled by other considerations, then the Crawford County System, would accomplish what it professes to ascertain, and give expression to the popular will. But just here is the great difficulty—and here this system fails. The people will not, on ordinary occasions, attend the delegate elections. This, being an admitted fact, then does the Crawford County System prevent any of the abuses perpetrated by means of the delegate system? This we take it, is the great object to be attained. Are not combinations as readily made, and improper influences as easily and successfully used, in one case as in the other?
>
> Honest dealing is the exception. There can be no safeguards for honesty, because all the machinery employed is without responsibility. It tends to corrupt and demoralize men, by placing them in the way of temptation. We all know that good men, under the heat of personal rivalry and political excitement, will do or sanction things which their cooler judgment disapproves, and this Crawford county system opens the door to such easy fraud, that universal experience testifies to its dangerous tendency.
>
> This might not be the effect for a short time, but it would inevitably come. The frauds committed through this system can be concealed, and their perpetrators screened from observation, while the votes of delegates to a County Convention, at least, are public, and can be scrutinized by their constituents. The delegate who would wilfully misrepresent or disregard the wishes of his people, or be open to the suspicion of being governed in his votes by improper influences, would certainly meet with popular reprobation, and forever lose his standing and influence with his neighbors.
> The alleged abuses of the delegate system proceed from the failure of the voters to attend the primary elections, thus allowing a few men to control the elections, and virtually make the nominations. Now we believe these evils to be in great measure imaginary, the allegation proceeding from the interested growlings of malcontents, and in most cases become the offspring of men, who have not the confidence of the people. If the voters do not turn out to the delegate elections, it is no evidence that they do not feel any interest in the formation of a proper ticket. They say, "A or B, are candidates for Sheriff, (or some other office)—both are good men—we don't care who has the nomination," —and being content with the success of either, will not take the trouble to attend the primary meetings. A half dozen men go to the meeting and elect delegates, and it looks as if that half dozen men spoke for the township, whereas they but represent the feelings and express the wishes of perhaps nine-tenths of the Republican voters. In most cases, a light attendance at the primary meetings is only evidence that those seeking the nominations are not objectionable, and that the people have no choice between them.

The action of our sister county of Susquehanna is pertinent and somewhat suggestive. A Convention was held at Montrose, on the 17th of January last, for the purpose of adopting or rejecting the Crawford County System, which resolved to adopt it. There was so little feeling amongst the people on the subject that barely half the districts in the county were represented, and the resolution to try the system was adopted by a small majority. This action has given rise to such an expression of opposition, that the County Committee at a recent meeting vetoed the action of the Convention, and recommend that the next County Convention be composed of two delegates as heretofore, who shall decide whether the Republican party of Susquehanna will hereafter work under the Crawford County, the ratio, or the old system.

It appears from the experience of Susquehanna, that the people do not feel or realize, the terrible evils flowing from the delegate system, as one-half the election districts failed to be represented in a Convention called for the express purpose of their reformation.

OUR GERMAN PRESS.

The Volksblatt has an article on the French election. It says that the crafty Louis Napoleon has triumphed again, that he has shown how universal suffrage may be used in the interest of dynasties. He has stolen their best thunder from the Democrats. But perhaps it is his last triumph. The character of the Gallic people is as unstable as the ocean—to-day an even plain smiling in the sunlight—to-morrow a chaos of wild and raging billows. There is another article descriptive of Edward Degener, M. C. from Texas, which is copied from the Baltimore Wecker. Of the Jenckes bill, a third article treats. It thinks that little by little this reform movement will break its way through, but such things move very slowly, and the old adage "to the victor belongs the spoils" is too deeply rooted in American public life to leave much hope that anything satisfactory will be done, at least during the present session.

The Republikaner speaks of the ladies who compose the Woman's Suffrage Association, as "men-women," and as "pantaloon wearing women." It also has an article on the French election, which it regards as having been a fair one, and ridicules the idea that eight millions of French voters would allow themselves to be guided by a handful of prefects. "Such a supposition is so perfectly childish that one might regard it in silence were it not to be found in so many newspapers. The fact is that the great majority, perhaps seven-eighths of the French people is in perfect accord with the Napoleonic government." In another article, a fanatical congregation of colored people, who spring, howl and scream the most abominable nonsense, is described, and then, as a sort of explanation, it says: "Their close alliance with the pious wing (which by the way is the stronger) of the Republican party, leaves us but slight hope of their early release from superstition and blind fanaticism, for they serve it as unconscious tools and just at present as Bible guard."

WE hear from Washington, that:

M. S. Humphreys, J. D. Evans, B. A. McGinty, and David Harris, all iron-workers from Pittsburgh, have arrived here as a delegation from the workingmen of the rolling mills in the city of Pittsburgh, for the purpose of pleading against any reduction of the tariff on iron, believing that such reduction is detrimental to the interest of the entire country.

ZANESVILLE, OHIO.

The Boiler Explosion at Water Works—Death of an Insane—Another Newspaper, &c.

[Correspondence to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ZANESVILLE, OHIO, May 7, 1870.

Yesterday this city was the scene of an explosion of a serious nature, resulting in the death of one man, and the slightly injuring of some others.

About ten o'clock, I was standing at the Court House, when I heard the sound as of a heavy blast going off, but which I guessed to be a boiler explosion. Looking in the direction from which the sound came, I proceeded, and soon came to the corner of Fourth and South streets, and found that one of the boilers of Water Works had exploded, and badly damaged the Power House building, knocking off about half of the slate roof and badly shattering the balance.

The exploded boiler was driven through the south wall, but the other two were only somewhat displaced. Besides two large apertures in the walls, two of the walls of the building were very much sprung.

In the yard we found the fireman, Mr. Gotleib Stahley, badly burned and bruised, and suffering most intensely. Physicians decided that he could not recover, but he survived his injuries for twenty-six hours. His funeral will take place to-morrow, (Sabbath) and the firemen will appear in procession.

Although the Power House building was wrecked, the engine was not thought to be much damaged, and can be in working order in two weeks.

The accident does not seriously affect the supply of water, as the old Power House, which is operated by water power, was soon put in operation, and will be ample to supply the ordinary demand.

The trustees of Water Works had only a short time since changed engineers, and it appears that the incoming engineer had desired a thorough overhauling of the engine, but the trustees had deferred this for a week or so. The explosion was caused by a deficiency of water in the exploded boiler, which has doubtless often been deficient in this respect, as the boiler was considerably burned out in some places.

Henry Kiester, a young man well known as a grocery keeper on Main street, died a few days since in the insane asylum, and his funeral took place yesterday, attended by two lodges of Masons. His insanity was the result of an accident which occurred several years since.

The firm of Brown, Manly & Co., plow makers, of McConnellsville, who expected and desired to establish their works in this city, have concluded to remain in McConnellsville, they having received an accession of $25,000 to their capital stock from parties at that place.

If there is any other firm making valuble machinery, or desiring to make such, they can have valuable material aid from the citizens. This would be a good point for the manufacture of wire and wire fabrics, fire brick, roofing and drain tile, chimneys and chimney tops.

John T. Shryock, after being out of the business four and a half years, is about to engage again in publishing. He will in a few days issue a large weekly newspaper, to be called the Farmers and Mechanics' Advocate. The paper is to be independent in politics, and will maintain the protective policy and other interests of the producing classes.

The weather here is beautiful, a little too dry for some of the crops, but splendid for fruit, and prospectively for corn, which is now being put in the ground.

Court is now in session. Only three indictments were made by the grand jury, and they for not very flagrant offences.

Yours, &c., GLEANER.

(For the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

SUFFRAGE OVER THE WATER.

"Listen, Brother Jonathan," said John Bull, the other day, after a sleepless, long and weary night, with doleful looks and a heavy heart. "If we do not enfranchise these terribly sincere women, they will tell every body our most secret sins. And sure as I live, they will picture us exactly as we are, and not as we want to be thought of by other people. Only think of this! We would never be able to redeem our characters after they have once done speaking. There is in fact no other chance left, consider it as you like. When woman once starts to speak out, you cannot stop her, not more than a cannon ball. For our own sakes, let us hurry this matter. This everlasting humming, and chirping, and singing, and murmuring, and whispering about enfranchisement stuns my nerves, confuses my mind, excites my admiration in spite of my masculine dignity so that I shall get maddened, if it is going on for a much longer time."

"My own dear John," cried the congenial sympathising brother, "you take a heavy burden from my heart; your words fall like dew on my weary soul; for if we grant it willingly they will love us the better for our generosity; and if they force us to surrender, we would feel awfully mean." So ended the conversation.

EDITORS GAZETTE: DEAR SIRS—I was rejoiced to see the announcement in the GAZETTE that Captain Charles B. Gillespie, of Freeport, Armstrong county, is a candidate for the Congressional nomination.

Brave, loyal, true and gifted, he would make an able and efficient member of Congress.

The Republicans of Armstrong county will cover themselves with glory by nominating him. ALLEGHENIAN.

ALLEGHENY, May 10, 1870.

The Cessna Georgia Bill.

The following is the amendment submitted by Mr. Cessna to the bill (H. R. 1,335) to admit the State of Georgia to representation in the Congress of the United States, and to suppress violence and protect American citizens in the several States:

WHEREAS, The people of Georgia have framed and adopted a constitution of State government which is republican; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature of Georgia, elected under said constitution, in the month of January last, did ratify the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS, The performance of these several acts in good faith is a condition precedent to the representation of the State in Congress: therefore

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the said State of Georgia is entitled to representation in the Congress of the United States: Provided, That the next election for members of the General Asssembly of said State shall be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November, anno Domini 1872, and the last clause of the second subdivision of the first section of the third article of said constitution, in the following words, "The General Assembly may, by law, change the time of election, and the members shall hold until their successors are elected and qualified," shall never be by any Legislature exercised so as to extend the term of any office beyond the regular period named in the said constitution; and the said General Assembly shall, by joint resolution, consent to this proviso as a fundamental condition before this act shall take effect: Provided, That before any member of the Legislature of said State shall take or resume his seat or any officer or the State shall enter the duties of his office, he shall take and subscribe, and file in the office of the Secretary of State of Georgia, for preservation, an oath of affirmation in the form following: "I, ———, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State to support the Constitution of the United States and afterward engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to enemies thereof. So help me God." Or under the pains and penalties of perjury (as the case may be.) Or such persons shall in like manner, take, subscribe, and file the following oath or affirmation: "I, ———, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have by act of Congress of the United States been relieved from disabilities imposed upon me by the fourteenth amendment of the Constitution of the United States. So help me God." Or under the pains and penalties of perjury (as the case may be,) which oaths of affirmation shall be taken before and certified by, any officer lawfully authorized to administer oaths. And any person who shall knowingly swear or affirm falsely in taking either of such oaths or affirmations shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall be punished therfor by imprisonment not less than one year and not more than ten years, and shall be fined not less than one thousand dollars and not more than ten thousand dollars. And in all trials for any violation of this act the certificate of the taking of either of said oaths or affirmations, with proof of the signature of the party accused, shall be taken and held as conclusive evidence that such oath or affirmation was regularly and lawfully administered by competent authority: And provided further, That every such person who shall neglect for a period of thirty days next after the passage of this act to take, subscribe, and file such oath or affirmation as aforesaid shall be deemed and taken to all intents and purposes to have vacated his office: And provided further, That the State of Georgia is admitted to representation in Congress as one of the States of the Union upon the following fundamental conditions: First. That the constitution of Georgia shall never be so amended or changed as to deprive any citizen or class of citizens of the United States of the right to vote who are entitled to vote by the constitution herein recognized, except as a punishment for such crimes as are now felonies at common law, whereof they shall have been duly convicted under laws equally applicable to all the inhabitants of said State: Provided, That any alteration of said constitution, prospective in its effects, may be made in regard to the time and place of residence of voters. Second. That it shall never be lawful for the said State to deprive any citizen of the United States, on account of his race, color, or previous condition of servitude, of the right to hold office under the constitution and laws of said State, or upon any such ground to require of him any other qualifications for office than such as are required of all other citizens. Third. That the constitution of Georgia shall never be so amended or changed as to deprive any citizen or class of citizens of the United States of the school rights and privileges secured by the constitution of said State.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That so much of the act entitled "An act making appropriations for the support of the army for the year ending June 30, 1868, and for other purposes," approved March 2, 1867, as prohibits the organization, arming or calling into service of the militia forces in the State of Georgia, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall appear to the President, from an application by the Legislature of any State, or by the Governor of such State, when the Legislature cannot be convened, that domestic violence prevails in any city, county, or municipal organization in such State, that cannot be suppressed by the local authorities, it shall be the duty of the President to suppress such domestic violence, and for that purpose he is hereby authorized to employ the military force of the United States, and any portion of the militia of any State he may deem necessary, and to exercise all such powers and inflict such punishment as may by the laws, or the rules and articles of war, be exercised or inflicted in case of insurrection or invasion.

The Victims of Incompetents.

The origin of the fearful calamity which recently occurred in Richmond is a question of public importance everywhere. There is no better illustration of the necessity for the thorough and scientific instruction of our young mechanics and artisans than what the people so frequently read of concerning the falling of houses and the consequent destruction of life and limb. We have had accounts of two such accidents since the dreadful occurrence in Richmond. But it is only when some disaster occurs that destroys scores or hundreds of lives that the public mind is so strongly aroused as to take effective means to guard against the recurrence of such terrible tragedies. The construction of a building that can by any possibility be made use of for the congregation of large numbers of people, is an important matter that should always be placed in unquestionably competent hands. As a general rule, such men are chosen; too often, however, they are not. But it very frequently happens, in the course of years, that buildings carefully constructed by the original architects and builders are put in charge of inferior architects or ignorant persons to be altered to suit other purposes. This is nearly always a fatal mistake, for if there is any discrimination to be made, there should be more care in the selection of the directing head, where alterations are to be made in a large building, than if it were to be an entirely new structure. But the safe rule is to employ only the best men in all cases where large numbers of persons may be placed in peril, whether the proposed building is either entirely new or only an altered one. It is quite too common to take serious risks to save material, workmanship and cost. Such buildings should always be subjected to the tests, and constructed upon the principle applied to railway bridges or first-class roads—that is, the maximum load which by any possibility can be placed upon them, whether of freight, or merchandize in store, or the more precious burden of human beings, should be first carefully ascertained, and then the walls and floors, and every part on which any part of the strain can rest, should be so constructed as to bear five or ten times the maximum load so ascertained.

When a new building falls down, it is nearly always because the architect or builder is ignorant, or because he recklessly disregards the plainest principles of mechanical science. When this happens with an altered old building, it is most frequently through pure ignorance. Some men who take charge of such operations seem to have no idea that those parts of a building upon which nearly the whole weight of the structure rests should be firm and strong, and continuous from the foundation trenches to the uppermost girder, rafter or joist at the top of the house. They do their work as if the weight of a building has some inherent magical property of sustaining itself in the air without other support. Thus we find such blunders as were perpetrated some years ago, in one of the Hospital buildings at the Blockley Almshouse, in cutting through the piers on which the floors rested, to make some "improvements" in heating, leaving the unfortunate inmates in daily peril of their lives until one day this house without legs went down, burying a score or so of helpless victims in the ruins. So, too, in a recent case in St. Louis, where a reckless or ignorant contractor cut away the corner pier from under a building to make some alterations, and had his men working away at it, the same as if it were still as firm as the hills, when the house went down with a crash, killing and maiming workmen and street passengers alike.

These are always the products of pure ignorance, even when there is recklessness as well. We could multiply such illustrations far beyond our available space. As to the breaking down of the Richmond Court-room, it is not quite clear which part gave way first, whether the gallery or the middle of the floor. The latter was supported by three timber girders, about thirty-four feet long, twenty inches by twelve, and placed fourteen feet apart. They were not supported by pillars below, and the middle one, which broke down, had "settled" about nine inches before the disaster. Some think it gave way first, under the weight of the crowd upon it, and carried the gallery along. Others, and among them one of our own experienced mechanics who was in Richmond at the time, and narrowly escaped the disaster, believe that the gallery and the crowd of people fell first, and by the additional weight thus precipitated suddenly upon the middle of the weak girder, broke that and carried all down together. In either case there were lamentable defects of construction for such a building, for the gallery, as this gentleman describes it, was supported by a heavy girder, which, in its turn, was supported by nothing, for all it had under it was a meagre wooden post at either end, and was nowhere supported by the wall. It is a wonder it did not go down long ago.

Thorough instruction of our young artisans in the principles of mechanical science, and the utmost care in the selection of competent architects and builders for public buildings, and especially for alterations in old buildings used, or to be used, for public purposes, are the true remedies for these shocking tragedies.—Philadelphia Ledger.

THE WEAR AND TEAR OF BUSINESS LIFE.

The cares and labors of business life are apt to tell severely upon the health and constitution of the ardent, energetic business man, and when the need of some sustaining agent is felt, stimulants that cause only a temporary exhilaration, and leave the system in a state of partial collapse when their first effect has passed off, are too often resorted to. As certainly as fire leaves behind it a residuum of ashes, the use of the adulterated liquors of commerce produces premature exhaustion and decay. Touch them not. Tone and regulate the overtaxed vital machinery with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. In that wholesome elixir, the alcoholic element, which is the purest derivable from any source, is tempered by the choicest tonic, aperient, anti-bilious and anti-febrile vegetable extracts and juices. To strengthen, recruit, solace and purify the system is the mission of the great vegetable specific. When the stomach is in a healthy state, the bile flows regularly, the bowels perform their office properly, and the telegraphic fibres of the nervous system are in perfect working order, an enormous amount of labor can be borne without risk or inconvenience, and the direct effect of the Bitters is to promote this vigorous condition of the functions upon which the nourishment of the body, and its power of endurance mainly depend. The great tonic and alterative is, therefore, emphatically recommended for its remarkable strengthening properties, to all upon whom the responsibilities of life press heavily, and who feel like fainting under the burthen. A lively appetite, a splendid digestion, elastic spirits, and a marvellous ability to withstand fatigue, are among the blessings justly ascribed to the renovating operation of this palatable and powerful cordial, indeed there is nothing in the materia medica that can be compared with it.

DR. WHITTIER
CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL PRIVATE DISEASES. Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, Pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. The manipulations of the cliques have advanced gold again to 114 7-8, with a strong market, and government bonds have likewise advanced under the influence of the higher gold premium. The funding bill seems to have no chance to pass, and therefore the advance coupled with the easy money market.

Stocks are stronger and higher, and may advance considerably higher before a reaction can be counted on.

In local securities municipal bonds and bank stocks are inquired for, but railroads are not much in demand.

Money easy at from 7 to 9 per cent.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
TUESDAY, May 10, 1870. }

The oil market was comparatively quiet to-day, and contrasted with yesterday refined appeared to be a shade weaker, while on the other hand crude was stronger and higher. This is regarded as a bad indication, as crude is already too high for refined, and the fact of it advancing in the face of refined declining, is not favorable, and, as might be expected, is calculated to have a bad influence on the market. As we have repeatedly noted, our refiners generally want to do a legitimate manufacturing business, but in the present attitude of affairs this is almost impossible. There is no margin in buying crude and selling refined against it at the same time: this is well known and must be conceded. And in order to do business at all, the refiner is obliged to speculate more or less. To illustrate: he buys his crude when he thinks it is low and holds it until such time as refined advances sufficiently to enable him to sell, and this is the only way by which a margin can be secured. Sometimes the refiner can sell his crude at a profit, and then turn around and buy refined to cover his contracts at a less cost than he could make it, and by making a movement of this kind the refiner sometimes comes out very handsomely, realizing a good margin in both cases. Some of our refiners are making money, but it is by pursuing the course above indicated. If they were to do what is strictly termed a legitimate manufacturing business, to buy crude and sell refined at present prices, there is no doubt but what the number of bankurpts would soon be largely increased. This is the situation as near as we can get at it, and however unpleasant it may appear, there is no use in trying to disguise it, and the main cause for the whole trouble lies in the great cost of transpoatation, as compared with other points.

CRUDE.

Compared with yesterday, is firmer and higher. Sale 1,000 bbls seller, May at 13; and 1,000 seller June at same figure. Yesterday seller 10 days, sold at 12½ to 12¾. At the close to-day the feeling did not seem to be quite so strong, and buyers at quotations are not very numerous.

REFINED.

The refined market was reported a little offish to-day, as compared with yesterday, and prices are off about a ½. May, which was sold yesterday at 28½, would not bring over 28¼ to-day, and it was said that 28¼ was the best offer for June. Futures quiet and nominally unchanged.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
TUESDAY, May 10, 1870. }

There is nothing new or especially important to be said about the markets in a general way. Business generally, although by no means brisk, is about all that could be expected under existing circumstances, as trade is usually a little slack at this season of the year, as the best part of the spring business is over. Some of our grain merchants are operating pretty largely along the river for the Cincinnati market, and neraly all kinds of grain that formerly was shipped to this market is now sent to Cincinnati, as prices are relatively higher there than here, and as freights are low (by river) there is a much better margin than any of the eastern markets afford. One Pittsburgh firm sold seven thousand bushels of oats to go to Cincinnati, the other day, and quite a number of large shipments of both oats and corn have been made to that market within the past few weeks, and the parties selling realized a very handsome margin. It looks somewhat singular to see Pittsburgh grain operators, buying for Cincinnati, as heretofore, they usually bought there for Pittsburgh, but, as already intimated, prices are higher relatively than here, and the difference in freights makes it a much more desirable point, for Pittsburgh at least, than Philadelphia or any of the eastern markets. And this accounts for the very reduced stocks of grain, here, as the great proportion of the grain that is now being shipped from along the river to that market, in former years, was shipped to this market. Pittsburgh certainly has no right to complain, however, as it tends, indirectly, it may be, to help business here, and without it, trade would be no better, and possibly not as good.

APPLES—The supply is light and the season is rapidly drawing to a close. We continue to quote at $4 to $5 per bbl.

BROOM CORN—Is dull but unchanged, 13 to 16 cts per pound.

EGGS—The arrivals appear to be on the increase again and the market is dull but unchanged. Sales at 13 to 14 cts.

FLOUR—Is firm, but there is no improvement in the demand, which is entirely local, and prices remain unchanged. We continue to quote at $5 to $5½ for spring wheat; $5,50 to $6 for winter wheat, and $7 to $7,50 for fancy brands.

GRAIN—There is a steady demand for wheat and the arrivals continue light; we continue to quote at $1,15a1,20 for red and $1,25a1,30 for white. Sale of 75 sks red at $1,19. GROCERIES—The market is moderately active, but the demand is mainly from the country. Refined Sugars are an eighth higher in the east, while Coffees are weak though unchanged.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was about stationary last evening, but it was expected to rise again during the night under the influence of the late rains.

The Arlington arrived about nine o'clock on Monday night, and departed yesterday at 1 P. M. She had an excellent passenger trip out and a fair freight list, and it would have been much better had it not been for the unfavorable weather.

The Belle arrived from Geneva and departed again last evening. She will leave again to-morrow evening at 6 o'clock.

The Collier barges, Capt. Shedden, will depart for St. Louis to-day without fail, and shippers are requested to have their bills of lading down as early in the day as possible.

The Kate Putnam, Capt. Ed Evans, will be the first boat out for Nashville.

The Savanna, from St. Louis, was due last night.

The Glendale, Capt. Hare, with the veteran Capt. Mellon in the office, is announced for St. Louis forthwith. She is one of the best boats in the trade and offers superior inducements to passengers.

The Juniata is due here from Cincinnati to-day, and will return as usual tomorrow at 12 o'clock.

Mr. J. W. Fairley and Mathew Steele, both well known grain merchants, were passengers on the Arlington, also Mr. J. N. Montgomery, some years ago one of the editors and proprietors of the Pittsburgh Post.

The Wild Duck barges, Capt. Anawalt, are announced for St. Louis. Capt. Anawalt is well known as one of our most energetic and hard working steamboatmen.

RED RIVER.—Quite a fleet of boats have returned with loads of cotton from above the raft, aggregating fully 6,000 bales. The officers of these steamers report the river falling rapidly, but as they left before the last rains, we anticipate another rise. The bulk of the cotton at the landings on Upper Red river has already been brought out on the late rise, but it is estimated by those who ought to know, that four or five thousand bales might be found by boats that would make diligent search near the head of navigation.—Caddo Gazette.

—The Decatur (Alabama) Republican, of last Wednesday, contains the following: The improvements on the Tennessee river at Colbert's Shoals are progressing rapidly to completion. When the obstructions in the river at that point are all removed, preparations will be made to clear out obstructions at the Muscle Shoals. When this is done, the Tennessee river will have uninterrupted navigation from Paducah to Knoxville.

—The harbor-master at St. Louis has made the following regulations: All boats are required to discharge and receive their cargos at their own landings or across their own wharf boats. If they have railroad iron for the North Missouri Railroad, or freight for the Elevator, they are permitted to discharge there. A breach of this ordinance will subject the offender to a fine not less than $5 or more than $200.

—The Cincinnati Chronicle of Monday says: Mr. Wm. Doyle, one of the old stock of engineers, and well-known here, arrived in this city this morning. He is just from the Red river packet Rudolph, and is en route for Pittsburgh. He will return here and superintend the construction of a Red river packet.

—Capt. E. B. Trinidad, of New Orleans, closed a contract on Wednesday, the 4th inst., with John B. Davies, of Louisville, for a boat for the Attakapas and New Orleans trade. Her dimensions are as follows: 135 feet long, 25 feet beam, and 5 feet hold; 15 inch cylinders and 4 feet stroke.

—The Sallie, bound for the mountains, passed Omaha last Wednesday. She refused freight and passengers to the amount of $1,200 at that point. Missouri river is falling.

—Eph Miles, a retired boatman, is successfully farming at Harpeth Shoals, Tennessee. He began his career as deck hand with Jos. Throop and Ben. Egan.

—The Bellevernon and Camelia were at Evansville on Sunday, the former en route from St. Louis to Pittsburgh, and the latter Pittsburgh to Nashville.

—A party of builders passed through Memphis a few days ago to Pittsburgh, where they will contract for an ironclad snagboat to operate in Red river.

—The Argosy, St. Louis to Pittsburgh, left Cincinnati on Sunday morning. Pilots—Erastus St John and W. M. Clarke.

—The new boat Grand Tower was to have left Louisville for St. Louis yesterday.

—The Arkansas has again gone above Little Rock for a heavy load of cotton.

—The Messenger was to have left Cincinnati for St. Louis on Monday.

—Business is good at New Orleans for Ohio river boats.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ CONSUMPTION.

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP for the cure of Coughs, Colds and Consumption.

Dr. SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC for the cure of Dyspepsia and all the Debilitated Conditions of the Stomach.

DR. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, for Diseases of the Liver or to act as a Gentle Purgative.

All of these three Medicines are often required in curing Consumption, though the Pulmonic Syrup alone has cured many desperate cases. The Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills assist in regulating the Stomach and Liver, and help the Pulmonic Syrup to digest and search through the blood vessels, by which means a cure is soon effected.

These Medicines are conscientiously offered to the Public as the only safe, certain and reliable remedy for Pulmonary Consumption, and for all those morbid conditions of the body which lead to that fatal disease. Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia are often forerunners of Consumption, and when they manifest themselves they require the most prompt attention.

The Pulmonic Syrup is a medicine which has had a long probation before the public. Its value has been proved by the thousand cures it has made through a period of more than thirty-five years, in all of which time its reputation has increased, and the most obstinate skepticism can no longer doubt that it is a remedy which may be used with confidence in all cases which admit of a cure.

If the patient will perseveringly follow the directions which accompany each bottle, he will certainly be cured, if his lungs are not too much wasted to make a cure possible. Even in cases supposed to be incurable, when friends and physicians have despaired, the use of this Medicine has saved the life of the patient and restored him to perfect health.

Dr. Schenck does not say that all cases of Pulmonary Consumption are within the reach of medicine, but he emphatically asserts that often when patients have the most alarming symptoms, such as a violent cough, creeping chills, night sweats, general debility, even to such a degree that they are obliged to lie in bed, and when they are given up by their physician, they may still be cured. No medical treatment can create new lungs, but when the lungs are very sadly diseased and to some extent destroyed, a cure may be effected by Dr. Schenck's medicine.

Also, in Scrofulous Diseases, these medicines are equally efficient. Dr. Schenck has photographs of a number of persons who have been nearly covered with running sores and now all healed up. This shows its purifying properties, which must be able to heal cavities in the lungs.

In the treatment of Consumption it is of the utmost importance to give vigor and a healthy tone to the system. Hence it is necessary to strengthen the appetite of the patient and improve the digestion. Proper nourishment is required together with such means as will make the food easily digestible. The articles most suitable for the diet of Consumptive patients are designated in Dr. Schenck's Almanacs, which are distributed gratuitously. In general, the most highly nutritious articles are to be preferred, but the digestive organs must be strengthened in order to make either food or medicine serviceable. This requirement is met by the Seaweed Tonic, and for this purpose it was designated.

When the digestive powers are put in good order, the food has its proper effect; the system of the patient is invigorated and the lungs begin to exercise their functions in a normal and healthy manner. Then the healing powers of Pulmonic Syrup will effect the cure.

Pulmonary Consumption is almost always complicated with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. Schenck's Mandrake Pills are intended to remove obstructions from the Liver and restore its healthy action. They have all the efficacy which is ascribed to calomel or "blue mass," and are warranted not to contain a particle of any mineral poison. These Pills cure the most obstinate costiveness, sick headache, piles, billious affections, and all other diseases which arise from a torpid or obstructed condition of the Liver. One box of these pills will prove the efficacy of the medicine.

In Consumption the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are invaluable auxiliary medicines. They relieve the sufferings of the patient and assist the Pulmonic Syrup in effecting a cure. They have been found useful in advanced stages of Consumption, where the lungs are almost entirely destroyed and all symptoms according to the judgment of the physician indicated a speedy death. The lives of patients who were actually in a dying condition have been preserved for months by the use of Schenck's three great remedies.

Dr. Schenck's Almanac contains a full treatise on the various forms of disease, his mode of treatment and general directions how to use his medicine can be had gratis, or sent by mail by addressing his Principal Office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. de27:d&T

Capt. W. B. Cook, who has been seriously ill during the past two months, was able to be out yesterday. His many friends hope for his full and speedy recovery from the long ailment that has attacked him.

Frost.—This morning the traces of a heavy frost were observable. We await with anxiety reports from the country districts as the fruit trees are all in blossom and a heavy frost would materially damage the prospects.

The Fifth Avenue Bank yesterday held an election for a Board of Directors, with the following result: Wm. C. Robertson, Wm. P. Weyman, D. M. Armor, Daniel Kinzer, Emil Poerstel, Wm. H. Sims, G. H. Meyer, Louis Kim and Jno. Kaiser.

Well 44 on the Bartlett Oil Company's tract on the property of the Philadelphia and Boston Petroleum Company, above Franklin, is now flowing at the rate of one hundred barrels per day. It is a new strike. Capt. James Wilkins, a well known oil dealer, is one of the owners.

The Annual Election of officers for the Merchants National Telegraph Company, resulted as follows: President, R. S. Waring; Secretary and Treasurer, James Wilkins; Directors, R. S. Waring, James Wilkins, J. T. Stockdale, John Benn, W. P. Logan, Fred. Fisher, R. D. Cochran.

David Greenhard residing in the Sixth ward, has a dog which yesterday bit a son of Michael O'Donnell, who yesterday made information before Alderman Thomas, setting forth the fact and causing the Alderman to issue a warrant for the arrest of David for keeping such a dog.

Knocked Down—Wm. H. Fischer and John Fisher got into an altercation yesterday about some trifling matter, when, as William alleges, John struck him with his fist and knocked him down. The Mayor was informed of the affair, and at the request of William he issued a warrant for the arrest of John.

Ironed him.—John Douglass yesterday made information before Alderman McMasters, against John Snyder for felonious assault and battery. The prosecutor alleges that defendant hit him on the head with a bar of railroad iron, inflicting a severe wound upon his phrenological organism. The accused gave bail for trial.

Illegal Arrest.—John Costello made information before Alderman O'Donnell yesterday charging Michael Mulvaney with arresting him on Diamond alley, a few evenings ago, without a warrant and for no cause, and compelling him to undergo an imprisonment of eight hours. The accused was arrested and held for Court.

Organization Formed—The surviving members of Knapps' Battery held a meeting last night at Siddon's Hall and formed an association. Messrs. R. H. Kelley, F. S. Sloan, S. McCloskey, A. J. Walker and G. A. Berry were appointed to draft a Constitution and By Laws, to report at a meeting to be held at the same place on Thursday, May 19th.

Held the Stakes.—The stakeholder in a bet always occupies a delicate position. He is liable to be misrepresented. He often gets into trouble. Bernard Farrel is experiencing the truth of this. William Bowman accuses him of a too great pertinacity in retaining possession of five dollars, stakes in a certain bet. William puts it under the name of larceny, and Alderman Butler has issued a warrant on an information to that effect.

A Bath.—Yesterday Thomas A. Wright made information before Alderman Taylor against Lazear McKean for aggravated assault and battery. The son of the prosecutor, it is stated, offended the defendant, whereupon the latter threw the boy into the Monongahela and then stood on the shore and pushed him back when he swam out. The lad, it is stated, was only saved by the timely interference of a spectator. The parties reside at Soho, where the affair occurred. The accused was arrested and held for a hearing.

A Temperanceville Case.—In Monday's Gazette we noted the fact that Walter Ferguson and William Irwin, of Temperenceville, were charged before the Mayor by John Anderson with aggravated assault and battery. A hearing was had in the case yesterday, which resulted in the discharge of Mr. Ferguson, and the holding to bail of Irwin, who waived a hearing as far as he was concerned. Mr. Ferguson's connection with the affair was in no way improper, but the reverse, he having endeavored to preserve the peace.

Savage Prisoner.—Monday evening the Allegheny police were called to arrest a man residing in an alley off Second street, Third Ward, for abusing his wife. The woman was found laying on the bed, and stated that her husband had knocked her down and then tramped upon her. The police attempted to arrest him, when he drew a knife and attacked them, cutting the coat of one officer, but not injuring him. When at last overpowered and taken to the lock-up, he gave his name as Joseph Christ. Last evening the woman was unable to be out of bed, and was suffering very much from her treatment. The fellow was held until further developments.

Decoration Day.

It is well known that Post G. A. R. recently refused to accede to the arrangements for the celebration of next "Decoration Day." They contended that the laying of the corner stone would interfere with the proper observance of the occasion as a time for strewing flowers over the graves of the departed soldiers—hence they decided not to participate in the monument exercises. This action created considerable feeling and comment, and, for the purpose of having the matter duly considered, another meeting was held on Monday night. It was largely attended, and, after discussion, the previous action was rescinded, and the Post resolved to assemble at their Hall in Birmingham at seven o'clock in the morning, from thence proceed to the cemetery and decorate the graves, and then, returning, join the procession and exercises at the monument. This action settles the difficulty.

Mr. Taylor inquired if there had been any attempt to divide the schools or the school fund in this city. He thought it time enough to discuss this question when it came before the Board properly.

Mr. Mitchell moved to postpone the matter.

Mr. Aiken thought it as well to meet the question at this time as any other. The question would have to be met sooner or later.

Mr. Nobbs moved to amend to postpone for one month. Adopted.

FINANCE COMMITTEE.

Mr. Cuddy, from the Commtitee on Finance, submitted the following report:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report, that having examined the law, approved April 24, 1870, find what purports to be the title of your board a misnomer, and in no part of the act is the legal corporate name given. These serious defects might in the opinion of your committee invalidate the bill, but on thorough consideration, we would recommend your board to correct the errors and comply with its provisions, by publication in two newspapers published in said city, asking for sealed proposals from banks or exchange brokers to act as the treasurer or depositary of said school funds; and we further recommend that you include in the published proposals a request that bidders for the funds shall also state the terms on which they would agree to loan such sums as may be necessary to meet any deficiency in the requirements of your board for school and school building purposes.

We would suggest to your Board that in future, all moneys received for tuition in High Schools, Deaf Mute School, or any other source by the Secretary, shall be paid into the general treasury and disbursed regularly, as any other funds, instead of the plan which has been allowed, of the Secretary receiving and disbursing such moneys, apart from and not entering into the general treasury.

In making our usual monthly statement of receipts and expenditures, we call your attention with pleasure to the additional receipt of ten thousand dollars, received somewhat unexpectedly from the State Treasurer, which money had been detained by an arbitrary regulation of the Treasury Department, but which, owing to the courtesy and influence of Hon. R. W. Mackey, is now in our possession, and will materially assist in bridging our own financial chasm. For this act Mr. Mackey is entitled to our warmest thanks. Annexed we present our usual monthly statement:

Received from R. W. Mackey and collected	10,310 40

After considerable discussion the motion was adopted.

Dean's Primary Intellectual and Intermediate Arithmetics were adopted.

Robinson's New Elementary Algebra was adopted.

Mr. Craig moved to strike out Mitchell's and substitute Guyot's. In support of the motion Mr. Craig spoke at considerable length, setting forth the advantages of Guyot's Geography over that of Mitchell's.

Considerable discussion ensued.

Mr. Craig called for the yeas and nays on the question, with the following result:

Yeas—Messrs. Anderson, Craig, Cuddy, Fleming, Hamilton, Harrison, Hartman, Mays Neckermann and Sims—10.

Nays—Messrs. Aiken, Chadwick, Clark, Getty, Humbert, Laufman, Mitchell, Nobbs, Shaw, and Taylor—10.

So the motion was lost.

The yeas and nays were called, when the motion was lost, the vote standing 10 yeas and 10 nays, as reported above.

Mitchell's New Intermediate Geography was then taken up and the motion to adopt was lost by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Nobbs, from the Committee on Teachers and Salaries, reported that in the matter of an application of Mt. Albion and Washington Sub-Districts for additional teachers, the Committee recommended the granting of the request of the former school, but rejected the latter.

Mr. Fleming, from the Monthly Visiting Committee, reported that he had visited the High School and Colored School and found them in good condition.

Mr. Harrison reported that the work on the new High School building is progressing as rapidly as possible, and that it will be ready for occupation by the 1st of September, 1871.

O'HARA DISTRICT.

Mr. Craig presented the report of the Special Committee to whom was referred the matter of the division of the O'Hara Sub-District. The report sets forth that under section 35 of the late school law the Board had power to divide or consolidate sub-districts. Since the passage of the act referred to that two new sub-districts have been formed out of four, but in each case the petitions for the same came from the Directors of the sub-districts. In this case the Directors have not petitioned for a division of the district, but on the contrary, have unanimously signed a remonstrance against it. The Committee thus far report that the Board had no authority to divide the ward, but they recommend that under the facts the prayer of the petitioners be granted.

Mr. Shaw moved that the prayer of the petitioners be granted.

Mr. Nobbs read a resolution adopted by the local board of the District remonstrating against the proposed division.

Mr. Craig moved as a substitute that the Board decide that they have no power to divide a district without a petition from the Board of Directors of said district.

The motion was laid on the table.

Considerable discussion ensued, after which the question recuring on the motion of Dr. Shaw to divide the ward, a vote was taken and the motion adopted.

Mr. Shaw moved that inasmuch as there had been no Geography adopted, that there be a special meeting called on the 1st instant to adopt a Geography.

The motion was adopted by a vote of 11 to 8.

Mr. Craig moved that the President pro tem. be authorized to sign all necessary warrants until such time as the President was able to attend to duties.

Mr. Humbert made application for two teachers in the Howard district.

Mr. Harrison made application for a teacher in the Minersville district.

Both applications were referred to the Committee on Teachers and Salaries.

Mr. Humbert stated that the new schoolhouse in the Howard district would be dedicated on the evening of the 14th inst.

On motion, adjourned.

BENEVOLENCE.

Pittsburgh and Allegheny Orphan Asylum—The Thirty-sixth Anniversary Meeting—What Has Been Done in a Year—And the Outlook for the Future.

One of the noblest benevolent institutions in our midst is the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Orphan Asylum. Year by year it flourishes, silently doing its work, and ever gaining in the confidence and love of the people. A slight evidence of the feeling with which it is regarded in the community was evinced, by the gathering of ladies and gentlemen who filled the chapel of the asylum on Ridge street, interested spectators of, and participants in the exercises of the thirty-sixth anniversary, yesterday afternoon.

The chapel had been tastefully trimmed for the occasion with evergreens and flowers, which served the double purpose of adding grace and beauty to the interior and filling the air with perfume. The children, neatly dressed, occupied the seats in front of the platform, and numbered about two hundred and fifty. They ranged in all ages, from infancy up to fifteen or sixteen years, and quiet, attentive, and apparently very greatly interested, presented an exceedingly beautiful picture of fresh, young innocence and happy childhood, which enlisted the sympathy and admiration of every spectator.

When all had assembled and order was secured, Hon. Robert McKnight took the stand, about three o'clock, as presiding officer, and called upon Dr. Miller to lead in prayer. The exercises then began with a song of greeting by the school to the visitors, after which the President read, as follows, the SECRETARY'S ANNUAL REPORT.

Our religion teaches us that we must not only care for the aged, and the suffering, but the little ones. The Jewish mothers, who endeavored to gather around the Savior with their children, that he might bless them, little knew the encouragement his words would prove in after years to those who labor among the young. We, believing that the same loving welcome now awaits our little ones, try to gather in the homeless and forsaken, that they, too, may learn of that loving, and yet unconscious care for them.

About two hundred and sixty-five children have found a home in the Asylum for a greater or less period of time during the past year. They are brought in under the following classes:

1st. Such children as are given to the Asylum by their relatives or guardians.

2nd. Such children as, being without proper homes, need care and shelter, as they have not been given to us, are taken on charity.

3rd. Half orphans, whose remaining parent is earning something, and is consequently able to pay a little towards their support. These are called boarders.

4th. Soldiers' orphans—The State contracts to support them until sixteen years of age. One hundred and five of the children are now under State control.

The health of these children has been very good throughout the year. There has been but two deaths, one a young boy, who had been an invalid for two years from consumption, and a little girl—a soldier's orphan. They passed away on two successive March mornings into the fadeless spring of the celestial shore. There has not been any important change in the management of the family. Mrs. Sterling continues to fill the position of matron. The uniform good health of these children we consider a sufficient proof that they are properly fed and well cared for. Without such there would be a greater mortality where so many are gathered. Nineteen little children are inmates of the nursery. Our former nurse, Mrs. Medley, after having had charge of this department for nine years, was obliged to return to her home in the west, leaving her place well supplied. The children are bright and active. Two, who when given to us were very delicate, have become nearly as vigorous as the rest. We must also acknowledge the kindness of Dr. O. L. Miller in watching over the ailments to which childhood is subjected.

For each of the schools we have been very fortunate in our choice of teachers. Miss Hervey and Miss Miller are earnestly endeavoring to give their older pupils a good, practical education, while the younger children are gathered into a primary class, where the confinement of school hours is rendered less irksome by singing and gymnastics. The older girls also form a class of sewing and mending, under the instruction of the matron.

The large increase in our family has necessitated the appointment of a Purchasing Committee. They, with the Visiting Committee, are required to send in written reports to the monthly meetings of the managers, so that the details of their work may become familiar to all the Board, and all matters submitted to their discussions.

The yearly letters required from the children, or from those with whom they have been placed by the Board, have this year been very satisfactory. There is an increasing interest in their education and training. In this age, when the Saviour is recognized as the friend of children, none feel its influence more than the orphan.

Of those whose term of indenture has expired during the past year, six have remained in the homes in which they were brought up. The money due when of age has been paid and invested. One has been educated to fill the position of teacher. All prove to be honest and industrious, and some are consistent members of Evangelical churches.

We owe much to our friends, as our list of donations will show, not only on the holidays; but through the entire year. Christmas was made very attractive for the children. Their tree was well supplied with gifts, and the little ones were very glad to have a view of the veritable Santa Claus. Mr. Julius Richter gave the children a pleasant surprise party of ice cream and cake; other kind friends have sometimes varied their daily fare with a supply of fruit in its season, while Mr. Hugh Richardson's donation of $50 enabled us to replenish their library.

Much valuable assistance has been gratuously rendered to the Managers in the discharge of their duties, and it is very encouraging to the Association to find year by year, a more decided expression of the necessity of this work.

H. LOTHROP.

THE CHILDREN.

The exercises were continued. Miss Mary McIlheny presiding at the organ and Professor W. H. Slack leading, when the school again joined in a lively song "The Household Pets" when Master Samuel Cunningham, in a very neat salutatory address, in behalf of his schoolmates returned their thanks to the managers and patrons of the Asylum for their manifold kindness and care during the year. Nine of the little girls now joined in a recitation, "Gifts of the fairy Queen." Freddy Heir next talked of "Old Times" in a humorous style, contrasting the difference between the present and what are called the "Old Fogy days" which to him seemed vastly preferable to the shams of the present. "Mr. Nobody" who did a deal of mischief about the house but was never known, was illustrated in a poetical recitation by Sammy Lent, which was followed by "Do what you can," a song by the members of the infant class. Cora Babbit a neat little Miss rejoicing in the weight of about six years, made an indignant "six year old protest" against the tyranny of being compelled to retire before seven o'clock and be deprived of the pleasure of Bob Jones, company, and all the enjoyments of "society." The little performer was heartily applauded. Johnny Price next illustrated "what I hate," in a recitation which was followed by another song by the infant class. The first Dialogue on the programme was "Peter Sly," participated in by four boys, who acquitted themselves well. Willie Beggs, a very small boy, in a sprightly manner, related some of the grievances attendant upon the possession of a pair of "short legs," chief among which was the impossibility of keeping quiet in school, with such appendages. "The Races," a humorous recitation by Bella Smathers, was well received, and created considerable merriment by its "take off" of the foibles of certain classes of fashionable society. Freddy Heir and B. Wills, varied the programme at this point, with a spirited Temperance song, entitled "They crowd us Awfully," in which the troubles of the whiskey sellers from the activity of temperance advocates, was happily represented. A dialogue "About Gambling," by Masters W. Dolby and W. Platt, depicted the evils of this practice from its commencement among boys by "pitching cents," "playing keeps," and similar evidences of juvenile propensities in this direction. A recitation, "The Prettiest Sight," was participated in by seven little boys and girls, who described to their maternal guardian the prettiest sights each had ever seen, numbered among which were "soldiers," "circus horses," "birds," "sky," "red sugar horses," and last the "children at the Sabbath School," which was voted the palm. Jennette Alford in a poetical recitation spoke of the "Voice of Nature," followed by "Sweet Bye and Bye," a song, by the girls of the School, which was exquisitely rendered.

The next performance was a dialogue, "The Little Philosopher," by two of the girls, in which the joys of labor in comparison with the evils of idleness were discussed. Freddy Heir again came on the platform and delivered a patriotic declamation on the "American Ensign" in a very correct manner.

The Rev. Dr. Preston was then called upon, and delivered a very pleasant and appropriate address to the children, which was listened to very attentively. Mr. McKnight also made a few remarks, complimenting the children upon their good conduct, and expressing the hope that they would always prove thus worthy of the care bestowed upon them. The programme was wound up with the song, "Work, for the night is coming," sang in a spirited manner by the school, after which the Benediction was pronounced, and the anniversary exercises thus brought to a close.

OFFICERS AND MANAGERS.

The patrons and contributors were called together immediately after the dismission of the scholars, when the following officers and managers were chosen for the ensuing year:

President—Mrs. Harmar Denny.

Vice President—Mrs. Mary Wilkins.

Secretary—Miss H. Lothrop.

Treasurer—Mrs. H. B. Logan.

Managers—Mrs. H. Childs, Mrs. W. Vankirk, Mrs. F. G. Kay, Mrs. L. Holmes, Mrs. R. S. Hays, Mrs. George Black, Mrs. J. F. Jennings, Mrs. James Verner, Mrs. B. B. Campbell, Mrs. F. Brunot, Mrs. John Heath, Miss Jane Holmes, Miss M. H. Smith.

The visitors and managers, after the adjournment, went through the building on a tour of inspection, and were highly pleased with the evidence furnished them on every hand that the Asylum was properly managed. The most perfect order and system seemed to pervade in every department, and the cleanliness, taste and even elegance manifest, in many instances, were in the highest degree complimentary to the attention and faithfulness of the matron and her assistants. The occasion throughout, whether in the deportment of the scholars and their evident advancement in moral as well as mental culture, or in the inspection of the Asylum, furnished additional proof of the eminently praiseworthy character of this noble charitable institution.

The Mysterious Departed.

Some time since a man made his appearance at the United States Hotel, Buffalo, New York, and registered his name as Geo. Smith. He appeared to have no friends or acquaintances in the city. but soon made many and became quite well known. He never gave any account of his past history, however. A few weeks ago he became sick and died, even on his deathbed maintaining a studied reserve regarding his antecedents. He was buried, and the circumstance made known through the columns of the Express, with a description of him, which elicited a reply from Miss Annie E. Munn, of Trenton, New Jersey, together with a photograph of her father, who had been missing from home, and who answered to the description given of Smith, the deceased. The photograph was recognized as a correct likeness of Smith, who was thus identified as Seth C. Munn, of Trenton. The lady stated she would have the remains brought home for interment beside her mother. The Buffalo Express, in giving an account of the affair, also says:

"Since the above was put in type we get still another singular clue. Holmes, Lafferty & Co., of East Liberty, Pennsylvania, write in the interest of Mrs. Seth C. Munn regarding this mysterious dead man, and describe him quite accurately. He left East Liberty with a sum of money to buy cattle some months ago, and was not heard from until our paragraph floating about in the newspapers attracted Mrs. Munn's attention. It is suspected that, after leaving Trenton, or while on one of his trips as a drover, he married this second wife, regarding whom his daughter was ignorant, as she makes no mention of a second marriage. Measures have been taken to unravel this chapter of the mystery of 'George Smith.'"

Batchelor's Hall.

It's not a pleasant undertaking to keep "Batchelor's Hall." There's always a great deal of trouble attending it. What with the cooking and mending, the cleaning and marketing, and the multifarious duties attendant upon the regulations of the household, a man has about all his time occupied, and is subject to untold vexation beside. William Paulus and John Falhauber tried the plan—took turn about at it. They have at last brought up at Justice Heisel's office. It happened this way: William says John was on duty and found that the provisions were getting low. He applied for ten dollars and received it. There was no perceptible difference in the table accommodations, and upon investigation William says he discovered the perfidy of John—he had used the money for his own personal gratifications. William's story formed the basis of an information for false pretence, upon which a warrant for John's arrest was issued.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

One Man Killed, and a Boy Dangerously Wounded.

An accident of a most shocking character occurred yesterday morning, at the Coal Works of Messrs. Keir, Foster & Keir, on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, at Sandy Creek, by which one man was killed instantly, and a boy was seriously, and perhaps fatally injured.

Mr. James Ramsdon, a coal miner, and a young man by the name of Fullmer, it appears were ascending the incline from the coal-tipple to the check-house in an empty coal car, and by some accident the check bar, which should have stopped the descending car, became misplaced and failed to stay the loaded car, which run over the tipple. The empty car being drawn up by the descending one was drawn over the drum at a fearful rate of speed, and Mr. Ramsdon's head struck an iron bar above the drum, splitting his skull and scattering his brains in every direction. His neck was also broken, killing him instantly. Fullmer's head also struck the iron bar and his skull was fractured, but he was still living at last accounts.

Cornoner Clawson was notified and repaired to the place where the accident occurred, yesterday forenoon, to hold an inquest on the body of Mr. Rainsdon, but we did not ascertain what verdict was rendered. The occurrence was, according to the statement of an informant, however, purely accidental, and the verdict will probably be "accidental death."

FIRE IN EAST LIBERTY.

Stable and Two Horses Burned—Supposed Incendiary Arrested.

About half-past one o'clock yesterday morning a fire occurred in the Twenty-first Ward, which burned a stable and two valuable horses belonging to Mr. Jacob Maisell. The fire was evidently the work of an incendiary, as the stable was not contiguous to any other building, and there were none of Mr. Maisell's family or employes about the stable after dark.

James Hann, who had formerly been employed by Mr. M. as driver, but had been discharged, was suspected of setting the building on fire, and a warrant was issued by Fire Marshal Joseph A. Butler, upon which he was arrested and locked up in the Tombs. He will have a hearing this morning.

American Bank.

The stockholders of the American Bank held their annual meeting yesterday at their banking house, 80 Fourth avenue, for the election of a Board of Directors. The following gentlemen were unanimously elected to serve during the year: John Floyd, President, Wm. Floyd, Thomas M. Marshall, William T. Shannon, Jas. W. Arrott, Chas. B. Leech, John M. Murtland, Archibald Wallace and James T. Kelley.

After the reading of the Auditor's report, the following resolutions were adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That the stockholders of the American Bank have heard with high satisfaction the report of the Auditors, which exhibits its operations during the first year of its existence.

Resolved, That the thanks of the stockholders are due, and they are hereby tendered, to our excellent President, John Floyd, Esq., and our able Cashier, William Floyd, Esq., for the success and economy with which they have conducted the affairs of the bank during the past year.

No institution of the kind that has been established in our city has, so far as we know, succeeded beter than the American Bank. The exhibit made yesterday was most flattering. Our most estimable friend, John Floyd, Esq., who presides over the institution, has proved himself to be, as all who knew his eminent qualifications for the position felt sure he would, a first rate financier. The compliment paid both him and the cashier in the above resolutions of the stockholders was well merited.

Penn Avenue Improvement—Commissioners Nominated.

Monday evening a meeting of property owners on Penn avenue was held at Temperance Hall, East Liberty, to nominate candidates for five Commissioners to conduct the proposed improvement of the avenue.

Joseph Woodwell, Esq., presided, with Mr. Frank Van Gorder as Secretary.

After some discussion the following were nominated: William P. Shinn, Esq., Paul Hugus, Esq., Dr. A. J. Davis, Hon. John P. Penny, Dr. A. H. Gross, Dr. J. J. Marchand, Dr. R. C. Beatty, Henry Monhold, Moses Phillips, Benj. F. Vandevert and H. B. Tomer.

A committee, consisting of Messrs. Wm. Coleman, T. B. Hamilton and C. W. Batchelor, was appointed to inquire into the legality of voting by proxy, with instructions to report to the Judges of Election.

The candidates, at the suggestion of Mr. Batchelor, expressed their views on the matter, pledging themselves, if elected, to perform the work to the fullest extent of their ability.

The following resolution was then passed:

Resolved, That persons living on Penn avenue, and entitled to vote for said Commissioners, shall have the right to vote at said election by proxy.

The meeting then adjourned.

Alleged Bigamy.

Our laws make no provision for a plurality of wives—except to punish the possessor of more than one better half. It is natural to suppose that the property would be enough punishment, but it seems that it is not always sufficient. There are some men who have no fear of the law on that point, among which Hugh Burns seems to occupy a place. Yesterday Hugh was brought from Cleveland. He visited that city a short time ago, leaving Pittsburgh very hastily—he had a better half here whom he thought he'd better not meet. She came all the way from Ireland to see him. She was so long coming that Hugh, it is said, forgot her and united his fortunes with another fair Dulcinea, with whom he dwelt happily until the appearance of No. 2. This lady made inquiries, and heard of his departure and other matters. The two wives had a meeting which resulted in an information before Alderman McMasters against Burns for bigamy. William O'Neill, the brother of one of the ladies, being prosecutor. An officer was dispatched to Cleveland and secured his man. Yesterday a hearing in the case was had when Hugh gave bail in the sum of $1,500 for his appearance at court to answer the charge.

The Third Avenue Homicide.

Coronor Clawson yesterday morning empannelled a jury to hold an inquest on the body of Patsy Collins, who was murdered at No. 28 Third avenue, Monday night, an account of which we published yesterday. The jury after viewing the body adjourned to meet at 9 A. M. this morning in order to hear the testimony of Dr. McCook, who had been requested to hold a post mortem examination.

About ten o'clock yesterday morning Daniel Kerr was arrested and taken to the lock-up, and the officers were searching for John Nicholson all night.

Yesterday morning Chief Hague made information, from information received, charging Carrie Jones, John Nicholson and Daniel Kerr with the murder.

It is quite evident from what has already transpired that Carrie Jones and Kerr, if not actual participants in the crime, know more about it than they are willing to admit, but we learn that there is testimony clearly indicating who struck the fatal blow.

About eight o'clock last evening Nicholson came to the lock-up and delivered himself up to the authorities. He stated that he had been to Sewickley.

JAMES T. BRADY & CO.

Occupation of their Elegant New Banking House, Corner of Fourth Avenue and Wood Street.

Messrs. James T. Brady & Co., bankers and brokers, have just taken possession of the magnificent new banking building, which graces and adorns the corner of Fourth avenue and Wood street, and which was built on the site of the old established house, especially for the occupancy and purposes of the firm. The building is a conspicuous contribution to the architectural embellishments of the city, and reflects much credit to the good taste of the owners and the proficiency of the architect and builders. It has a front on Wood street of sixty feet, and a depth of forty feet running parallel and fronting Fourth avenue, the corner being rounded off gracefully, to lend effect to the general proportions of the building. From the pavement to the roof it is sixty-four feet high.

The basement, surrounded on the street fronts by an area, is 10 feet high in the clear. The first story, 16 feet, second 14 feet, third, 12 feet 10 inches, and the fourth is 11 feet 9 inches, all in the clear. The floor of the first story is raised four feet above the pavement. The walls of the basement are of stone, the outside surfaces of which are cut work, the other walls being constructed mainly of brick, faced with pressed brick, with courses or bands of stone, built at regular intervals, and extending around the two fronts. Besides these bands, there is a moulded belt course running around the building at every story. The window heads are also formed of attenuated blocks of stone and bricks, circumscribed by moulded stone tables. The two fronts are surmounted by a heavy bracket cornice. The stair hall door which is at the extreme end of the Fourth avenue front, and also the entrance door to the first floor (i. e. into the banking room) have cut stone frames around the entire openings.

The principal feature of the building consists, 1st in the blending of the two colors viz: of stone and brick, in the two fronts, both of these materials forming a strong yet harmonious contrast in color, which has been brightened by laying the brick in black mortar; 2d, in the outline of the window and door openings these being half circular style, but the labels of head being oversprung, from a slight pointed arch, thus imparting to the structure a semi-Gothic appearance. This feature is preserved in all the openings. The stone door frames are surmounted by a head piece, Gothic in its character, with appropriate ornamentation.

Messrs. Brady & Co's. room, is one of the finest in the city, being large, well lighted and ventilated. The floors are interlaid with black walnut and yellow pine, while all the desks, counters and shelving are of oiled walnut trimmed with ash. The counters are elaborately carved. The vault is especially worthy attention, as it is one of the staunchest fire and burglar proof depositories in the city. Within itself are two safes, each of a superior character and both made of steel and iron, and armed with impregnable bolts and bars. Indeed, the firm might give the largest liberty to burglars to obtain their funds, for their skill in the use of tools and gunpowder would prove of no avail on such masterly works of mechanical ingenuity, as the vault and safes contained therein. To the rear of the main banking room is the private consultation room, elegantly fitted and furnished for the occupancy of the firm. Altogether the new banking house is a model in its way, and affords the greatest possible facilities for the easy and proper transaction of the large share of business directed towards the firm.

The banking house of James T. Brady & Co. was originally established in 1837 by Sibbett & Jones, who were in turn succeeded, in 1848, by S. Jones & Co. In 1866 James T. Brady & Co. succeeded the latter firm, so that the same house, in an unbroken chain of succession, reaches as far back as 1837, and takes place among our oldest banking institutions. Under its present auspices and clever financial management, it has not only sustained the high repution won in the past, but added largely to its friends and patrons. The firm to-day enjoy the fullest measure of public confidence, and worthily too, for they conduct their business in a systematic manner, neglecting it in no department,—thus, while guarding their own interests, protecting those of patrons and depositors.

L. H. ROSENBACH.

The Popular Perfume and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 140 Smithfield Street.

Mr. L. H. Rosenbach, although among the youngest of our energetic and persevering business men, has succeeded in establishing, in first class style, a drug and perfume house which equals, in point of arrangement and stock, any in the city. Being thoroughly educated in the mysteries of pharmacology, and posted by long practice and experience in all branches of the trade, Mr. Rosenbach successfully competes with the older houses for a large share of patronage. His elegant store room has recently been thoroughly refitted and overhauled, and presents an exceedingly bright and cheerful appearance. The stock is fresh and varied, embracing not only all the conceivable ingredients of medicine but all the standard patent preparations before the American public. Of the latter a specialty is made, and readers can procure any pill, powder or decoction manufactured in this country and worthy place among the really good medicinal preparations of the day. Physicians' prescriptions are carefully and accurately compounded at any hour of the day or night. In this department especially is the house worthy of patronage, as Mr. Rosenbach is an experienced pharmaceutist himself, and his assistants are thoroughly educated, pains-taking and competent.

Mr. Rosenbach is agent for the sale of the celebrated and universally praised "Kasarine," a preparation or pomade which is warranted to restore gray hair. He also sells Kidder & Wetheral's Raven Ink, the best indellible ink in this market. We cannot to-day take occasion to enumerate all the leading specialties which enter his stock but would invite our readers to call and see for themselves. It would not be well, however, to omit calling attention to the magnificent fountain which graces the store, and from which most refreshing and reviving draughts of pure, sparkling mineral water may be obtained.

Altogether Mr. Rosenbach's store is a model in its way and worthy large patronage. The proprietor is courteous, fair dealing and honorable, while his assistants are polite and attentive to all comers. We earnestly commend the house to the patronage of our readers, knowing that they can no where else deal to better advantage.

THE AMERICAN BROILER.

For Sale by Fleming, Agnew & Co., Nos. 62 and 64 Third Avenue.

An eminent French physician, who once traveled through America, returned home and wrote a book on our national and domestic habits. In his observations he was particular to note that "the Americans do not know the value of beef. They fry and simmer the essence in a primitive pan, and present it to the hungry man as a baked chip. Broiling, they either do not know, or else they are too indifferent to adopt it in preference to the easier method of preparation for the table." He was right. The ordinary and customary method of "dishing up" the juciest sirloins and most tempting cuts is not the best, for, in frying meat, much, if not all, of the sustaining, health-giving and nourishing qualities are lost. They go up the chimney. However, this state of things was brought about because inventive genius was slow to present an easier method of cooking. To-day we may safely announce the desired end has been obtained. The "American Broiler" accomplishes all that is wanted. It broils beef in such a manner that it is rendered not only palatable but retains all its nutritious qualities. A cut of the culinary instrument in another column will, perhaps, better illustrate the virtues of the broiler than any language we might adopt. Simple in its construction, it is one of the grandest kitchen inventions of the age, and we cannot well conceive how any household could remain without it. It broils rapidly, efficaciously and completely over wooden fires, coal fires or gas burners. It suffers no odor to escape, and can be fitted to any size of stove or range. It can be used for roasting corn and nuts, for popping corn and any other like purpose, and is sold at the low price of $2 each. The well known and enterprising firm of Fleming, Agnew & Co., Nos. 62 and 64 Third avenue, are the sole proprietors for this invaluable invention in these parts and they allow a liberal discount to the trade. They have also a fine assortment of general tin ware, tinners' stock, fine Japan ware and house-furnishing hardware of all descriptions in store and for sale, We commend them to the patronage of our readers as eminently worthy a share of their orders.

When comparisons have been made by skillful mechanics between rival sewing machines their judgment has been invariably in favor of Singer's improved machine.
